LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

D. R. GRANT, formerly a freight agent at New Glasgow, N. S., has been killed on the Newfoundland railway.

JANUARY twelfth is the date assigned for the next meeting of the Quebec Legislature.

The Marine Department's annual shipping reports show a decrease in the registered tonnage of over fifty thousand tons.

An explosion of acetylene gas in the Barker House, at Fredericton, on Saturday last, caused considerable damage.

CAPT. BERNIERE of Quebec intends to start in search of the North Pole in May next. He has $40,000 of the $60,000 required.

The run from Yarmouth to Boston has been made in twelve hours by the steamer Prince George. Fastest yet.

The American schooner, John O'Neill, which was wrecked at Point De Roche, near Tracadie will be sold by auction on tomorrow 8th.

A PERIN despatch of the 3rd says a British warship has been ordered to Nanaimo to watch the manoeuvres of a French warship, which has arrived there.

A VOLCANO in a state of eruption has been discovered in Canadian territory in Alaska. It is the second of a range of towering peaks which rise 14,000 feet high.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER, writing from Rome, says he will start for Canada shortly after the Christmas holidays and expects to be in Ottawa in January.

An Ottawa despatch of Saturday last says arrangements are being made to place Canadian Artillery and Infantry at Halifax, under the instruction of officers of the Imperial force.

JOHN T. NIBLOCK, Ottawa, Local Superintendent of the London Life Assurance Company has been arrested on the charge of having forged the name of Dr. J. L. Tabot to a death certificate.

In a collision of two freight trains on the Fitchburg railway, near Albert, Mass., on the 2nd inst., brakeman, F. W. Knight, was caught in the wreck and burned to death.

Two bad accidents occurred at Halifax on Friday last. While shunting, Philip Howe, brakeman, was killed, and a team driver whose team was struck by the express for St. John had both legs broken.

DAMAGES amounting to eight thousand dollars have been awarded by the appraisers to the firm of J. B. Macdonald & Co., city, for losses sustained during the recent fire.

We are sorry to have to record that one of the missing passengers of the ill-fated steamer Portland, passenger of the wreck of which is given elsewhere in this issue, is Mr. William O'Brien, of Elmadais, this Province. Up to Friday night last his body had not been recovered.

FROM one and a half to two million dollars worth of property, at the corner of Broadway and Del streets, New York, were destroyed by fire on Sunday night last. The immense height of the buildings proved a serious obstacle to the work of the firemen.

FROM a Madrid despatch of the 2nd, we learn that the Queen Regent of Spain has been decorated by President Faure with the grand cross of the Legion of Honor. Also that Angelillo has sixty thousand soldiers equipped with Maxim guns to fight the Americans in the Philippines.

As a result of a communication from Mayor Warburton of Charlottetown to the Inspector General of St. John's, Newfoundland, the police of that place are engaged in looking up Louis Kawangah, a French-Canadian, thought to have left here on the steamer Polina for Newfoundland about the 20th of last May. Great anxiety is felt by his wife and family.

On the Freshwater Road, St. John's, Nfld., last week, Willie O'Dea and John Lamb were playing. Lamb playfully pointed an empty pipe case at O'Dea. The latter, to further the sport, got his father's gun and pretended to shoot. To his great astonishment the pretence turned out to be a reality, for the gun being loaded killed his companion instantly, tearing his head to pieces.

LAST week the body of John Conaghan, of Bras, Lot 9, was found at the mouth of Pierre Jacques River, in three feet of water. Just before the body was found on Sunday, 27th inst., he had left home to cross the river in a boat. At Pierre Jacques the boat was found capsized about 300 yards from the body. Death resulted more probably from exposure than from drowning. Deceased was twenty-eight years of age and leaves a widow and three children.

On Sunday night last a fire broke out in the Rogers and Post building, New York, and spread to the Home Life Insurance and the Mutual Savings buildings. The following is a rough estimate of the loss sustained, Rogers, Post & Co. building and stock, and losses to other tenants in the building $850,000; Home Life Insurance Co. building and losses to other tenants, $600,000; Postal Telegraph Co. building and losses to other tenants $100,000; losses to adjoining buildings $600,000.

OWING to the continued disagreeable weather and almost impossible condition of the roads, the attendance at the market yesterday was small, and the supply of products was consequently very limited. Prices were accordingly advanced from last week. Oats were quoted at 35 cents a bushel, with very few offerings. Potatoes were about twenty-five, with scarcely any in the market. The highest price for pork was five cents a pound; while four and three quarters was the ruling price. There is no change announced in the price of live hogs.
