

The Charlottetown Herald.

NEW SERIES

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1905

Vol. XXXIV, No. 26

Flour. Flour.

We carry a large stock of Flour, and can suit you in quality and price.

Groceries.

Our store has gained a reputation for reliable Groceries. Our trade during 1904 has been very satisfactory. We shall put forth every effort during the present year to give our customers the best possible service.

Eureka Tea.

If you have never tried our Eureka Tea it will pay you to do so. It is blended especially for our trade, and our sales on it show a continued increase. Price 25 cents per lb.

Preserves.—We manufacture all our own Preserves, and can guarantee them strictly pure. Sold wholesale and retail.

R. F. Maddigan & Co.
Eureka Grocery,
QUEEN STREET, CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I.

Seeds, Seeds.

Spring is here, and with it comes the Seeding time. We have prepared for it and have just received a shipment from the well known firm, THE STEELE BRIGGS SEED CO. of TORONTO. This firm has a good reputation, and their Seed can be relied upon to give good results.

We can supply you with all kinds of field or garden at the lowest possible price.

Our stock of

GROCERIES

Is always complete. Highest price paid for Butter and Eggs.

McKenna's Grocery.

Up town store, W. F. Carter's old stand, corner Queen and Kent Sts.
Down town store, corner Queen and Dorchester Streets.
CHARLOTTETOWN.

In Stock All Sizes Boys' Chocolate Kid Laced Boots

A boot with style and character in it, the leather is soft and beautifully coloured. The shape and quality are good.
Small boys' sizes 8 to 10, $1.50.
Boys' sizes 11 to 13, $1.85.
Boys' sizes 1 to 5, $2.10.

Alley & Co.

(Agents for "Queen Quality" and "Invictus")

$500.00

PURCHASE!

OF THE—

Ames Holden Co's

SAMPLE Boots & Shoes

All sorts and sizes for Men, Women and Children,
All at Cost Price

COME QUICK

CONROY,

THE SHOE MAN,

Pownal Street and Sunnyside,
Charlottetown.

SHIRT TROUBLES Cured Here!

Shirts are the test of a man's temper. So easy to have a little thing go wrong and then so easy to use strong language. Ours are made so as to spread a Christian Spirit throughout the land. They will not rob the man, rile the temper or rob the pocket. They are the

G. W. & R. Make.

The Negligee Shirts we are selling largely just now are the unusual smart styles that cannot be duplicated later on. Better get in on them while you can. New spring styles are for 75c, 90c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

Every Tenth Shirt Free.

Last fall we made this offer and many customers got a shirt for nothing. For one month we repeat this offer. It matters not what price the tenth purchaser pays, he gets another at same FREE.

D. A. BRUCE,

MEN'S FURNISHER.

Furniture of Quality

We Keep Pounding Away on Quality.

We don't want you to forget it. It is more important than price in the Furniture business. The long-wearing qualities of Newton's Furniture are known all over P. E. Island. Added to this important quality is the extreme lowness of price which prevails at this store. This combination of high quality and low price is what has made this store what it is—the place where people of means are sure of good things—where those of slender purse are sure of full value for their money. Come here for your next furniture purchase.

JOHN NEWSON.

HARDWARE!

Largest Assortment, Lowest Prices.

WHOLESALE and RETAIL

Fennell & Chandler

ROBERT PALMER & CO.,

Charlottetown Sash and Door Factory,

Manufacturers of Doors & Frames, Sashes & Frames in Interior and Exterior finish etc., etc.,

Our Specialties

Gothic windows, stairs, stair rails, Balusters, New Posts, Cypress Gutter and Conductors, Kiln dried Spruce and Hardwood Flooring, Kiln dried clear spruce, sheathing and clapboards, Encourage home Industry.

ROBERT PALMER & CO.,

PEAK'S No. 3 WHARF,
CHARLOTTETOWN.

It Is The Correct Thing

To discharge one's social obligations faithfully.

To pay special deference to elderly people wherever met.

To seek the society of those only who are congenial, since one has a right to choose one's friends.

To be pleasant to every one whom one accidentally meets.

For those in society to observe social usages.

To make a point of saying a few pleasant words to those who seem to be neglected at a large reception.

For kind-hearted Catholic matrons to chaperon motherless girls to places of amusement.

To remember that people of the highest rank are generally the least haughty.

For every well-born, well-bred American to act as if she felt herself the equal of every other well bred, well-born American, regardless of fortune.

To remember that snobs would not receive St. Peter himself unless he came with the proper credentials.

To get rid of undesirable acquaintances in some other manner besides the "cut direct."

To have many acquaintances, but few friends.

To consider a friend's roof as sufficient introduction at any time.

To assist cheerfully in affairs gotten up for charity through motives of charity, and not merely because it is fashionable to do so.

For ladies in society to use their position to further charitable aims.

For the rich to remember that money from them would be more acceptable than encouraging words.

For the poor to be generous with their sympathy and praise.

To refuse to know people who have forfeited their right in respectable society, whatever may be their position.

To think twice twenty times before uttering a word that would tarnish a girl's reputation.

To remember that legacy hunters are sometimes disappointed.

To have, as a rule, an average amount of sense, and are generally good readers of character.

To have a convenient memory at times.

To remember that money given in charity is an interest in heaven.

To entertain in accordance with one's means.

For a matron to refuse to present a man whom she would not care to have meet her own daughters, to the daughters of other people.

To remember that love, gauze, and tulle are unfailing friends to both the stout woman and to the thin one: to the first on the score of modesty, to the second on that of beauty.

To refuse to dance with a man whose reputation is not above reproach, no matter under whose roof he happens to be.

—The Correct Thing for Catholics.

Items of Interest.

A recent issue of the "Civita Cattolica" confirms the news that the Holy Father intends to publish an elementary catechism for use throughout the universal Church.

According to recent news, Mgr. Agius, the Apostolic Delegate in the Philippines, has recovered from the attack of native fever from which he recently suffered, and which, it was said, would probably result in his recall. The Roman authorities, it appears, had never considered the question of his withdrawal.

By resolution of the Australian hierarchy, a Plenary Council of all the Bishops is held every ten years. The first Plenary Synod was held in Sydney in the year 1885, and the second in 1895. This being the decennial year, the prelates, representatives of the diocesan and regular clergy and the Bishops' theologians will meet in Sydney in September, commencing business on the third of that month.

The late English Admiral J. L. Hammet, who died at Florence in February, on his way home to England, had for some time desired to enter the Catholic Church, and was looking forward to being received on his arrival in England. He was received by the Rev. Father Golding Bird, of the Oratorio di S. Giuseppe, Florence, and on the same day the last sacraments were administered by Father John Foresi, O. F. M., of the parish Church of Ognisanti.

The "Vera Roma," one of the three Catholic daily papers in Rome, is about to suspend publication. Recently it was announced that the Holy Father intends to publish official news of the Vatican in a special bulletin. It is stated that the "Osservatore Romano," which is published daily, will give place in September to that publication, which will appear periodically. The "Giornale di Roma," a new Catholic daily issued in Rome, is also said to be threatened with extinction.

The tide of conversion flows pretty steadily in the English-speaking colony at Rome, and at every season of the year converts from the most varied ranks of society are received. Of the most recent are Lady Batt and Margaret Batt, the latter of whom is now Princess Margherita Ruspoli, wife of Don Fabrizio Ruspoli, a son of the house at the head of which is the Master of the Sacred Hospice. Lady Batt is an American by birth, an English woman by marriage (being the widow of a very well-known judge) and a Roman by long residence, during which her name has been the principal one in the circle of theosophists dwelling in the Eternal City.

The Catholic nuns expelled from Catholic France are welcomed in Protestant Norway. Such a condition of things appears strange and anomalous, but the fact is vouched for by Bishop Fallize, of Norway. He says: "I have another cause for rejoicing. The congregation of nuns, persecuted in many Catholic countries, are so very welcome in Protestant Norway that those already established here are unable to answer all the requests made for their services. So I found myself under the necessity of founding a congregation of native Sisters under the name of Sisters of St. Francis Xavier. It was established last winter at Bergen, and the novitiate is full."

One of these little tales, satisfyingly authentic, which bring the Pope so near to all his people, enabling them to conceive of him as he is, comes out about the general of the Jesuits, writes the Rome correspondent of the London "Catholic Times." After granting the permission for the father to say Mass though deprived of an arm, the Pope kept awake by night wondering how it could be done. Soon the news was to reach him that it had been done without difficulty. Father Martin especially says the host, for breaking, with a patent before Mass. The assistant can touch the sacred species. He touches the chalice when two hands are necessary by prescription. For the rest, the venerable general is, to all seeming, well in health.

The French Chamber has been discussing the separation bill ever since the re-opening after the Easter holidays, and remarkably little progress has been made with it. The battle is chiefly raging round articles 4 and 5, which deal with the devolution of Church property and the guarantees necessary to ensure that that property shall not fall into the hands of unauthorized parties. The Socialists are making a stiff fight to leave such loopholes as may permit of the Church being tricked out of her property, but it is hardly likely that they will succeed to the extent they desire. Meanwhile Catholics are not the only ones who dread and oppose the Government measure. The General Secretary of the Lutheran Church in Norway, at their annual congress last week, passed a strongly worded resolution expressing dissatisfaction at the Government bill, and praying for the continuance of the status quo, which, on the whole, has been found to work well and to offer serious guarantees of security and liberty.

"In the United States we hear much about immigration and very little about emigration," says the Leader. "It is, of course, generally known that a multitude of farmers from our Northwest have gone into the Canadian Northwest so that the latter territory promises to become American by population, if not by annexation. Another sort of emigration, and a most lamentable one, is threatened for next year. If this occurs, it will be an exodus of simon-pure Americans whom the country can not, historically or economically, afford to lose. We refer to the red men of Indian Territory. The lands of five tribes are to be opened to the white invader by the Government in 1906. Already the Cherokees have a representative in Mexico negotiating with that Government for lands in Othubaha. Many Indians from this country have settled in northern Mexico, and have been very successful. It should be remembered that these tribes are civilized and make excellent farmers. In fact, it was from them that the white men, who despoil them, learned the methods and the utility of irrigation. It will be no credit to our Government if the pale-faced land thieves are allowed to drive these men from the territory watered, cultivated, and enriched by their labors."

Right Rev. Mgr. Nugent arrived in Liverpool at noon on Wednesday, May 17. In his appearance there are traces of the rheumatic attack from which he suffered in the United States, but it is confidently hoped that he will soon recover his good health and wonted energy.

Commenting on the attempt made on the life of the young King of Spain the other day in Paris, the Catholic Advance says: "There does not seem to be any motive aside from the anarchists' declared hatred of all kings and governments. The monarch himself, scarcely more than a boy, has shown a lively interest in the welfare of his people, he has been carefully trained, and his knowledge of Statecraft is said to be far beyond his years. His reign promises to be a happy one for Spain, and his contemplated marriage to an English princess would bring his country into close relationship with the land that is held up for admiration as a model of commercial prosperity and personal liberty. But, then, anarchy does not reason."

The French Freemasons have really fallen on evil days. The scandal of delation in the army began to shatter their influence, and they cannot recover from the shock which the Ninth Court of the Paris Correctional Tribunal gave them by giving a verdict with damages in an action for libel brought against their periodical, the "Bulletin de la Franc-Maçonnerie." They had succeeded in establishing a kind of jurisprudence to the effect that as the paper in question was only circulated among Freemasons, the contents were not "published" in the legal sense of the word, and were privileged. Under this usurped cloak of privilege they slandered and libeled right and left. The Ninth Court has now decided that the "Bulletin" should be considered as a newspaper in the ordinary sense, and should be held liable for libel. Incidentally, they have also been called upon to make with the Inland Revenue authorities the legal deposit required of newspapers, and which they had, up to the present, managed to escape.

"Rome has seldom witnessed such an outpouring of devotion as attended the opening of the Eucharistic Congress," says the Catholic Transcript. "Friday, June 2, six thousand delegates were in attendance when Cardinal Respighi declared the Congress formally opened. The grand old basilica of St. John Lateran was worthy of the gathering, holding as it does the table which was used at the institution of the Blessed Eucharist. All the Cardinals of the Curia, and over three hundred prelates, including patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, and heads of religious orders, attended the closing exercises, Pius X. imparting his blessing to twenty thousand persons. The Congress has demonstrated to the world that in the very centre of Christendom the great standard devotion of the Church is in full flower. Nothing fits in more harmoniously with the only declared policy of the present Pontiff of restoring all things in Christ. The Eucharist is the source whence all blessings emanate. Pledged to propagate devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharistic Congress is deserving of heaven's choicest benedictions."

Our men's famous boots at $3.00, price stamped on the sole, is without doubt the best boot in Canada for that money. You should have a pair. For sale by J. B. McDonald and Co. m 17, 6i

See the splendid lines of men's and women's Boots and Shoes, new stock just opened at money saving prices at J. B. McDonald and Co's.

The woman who buys Dress Goods now-a-days; has yet to buy right, but buying right does not mean a matter of "How Cheap." A-how cheap dress that is old fashioned and that will not stand the wear and tear is not the one wide awake people buy. They want a dress right up-to-date in every particular. Quality, style, we have, and good wear resisting qualities. This is the kind we sell. Send for samples.—Stanley Bros.

to our Government if the pale-faced land thieves are allowed to drive these men from the territory watered, cultivated, and enriched by their labors."

Right Rev. Mgr. Nugent arrived in Liverpool at noon on Wednesday, May 17. In his appearance there are traces of the rheumatic attack from which he suffered in the United States, but it is confidently hoped that he will soon recover his good health and wonted energy.

Commenting on the attempt made on the life of the young King of Spain the other day in Paris, the Catholic Advance says: "There does not seem to be any motive aside from the anarchists' declared hatred of all kings and governments. The monarch himself, scarcely more than a boy, has shown a lively interest in the welfare of his people, he has been carefully trained, and his knowledge of Statecraft is said to be far beyond his years. His reign promises to be a happy one for Spain, and his contemplated marriage to an English princess would bring his country into close relationship with the land that is held up for admiration as a model of commercial prosperity and personal liberty. But, then, anarchy does not reason."

The French Freemasons have really fallen on evil days. The scandal of delation in the army began to shatter their influence, and they cannot recover from the shock which the Ninth Court of the Paris Correctional Tribunal gave them by giving a verdict with damages in an action for libel brought against their periodical, the "Bulletin de la Franc-Maçonnerie." They had succeeded in establishing a kind of jurisprudence to the effect that as the paper in question was only circulated among Freemasons, the contents were not "published" in the legal sense of the word, and were privileged. Under this usurped cloak of privilege they slandered and libeled right and left. The Ninth Court has now decided that the "Bulletin" should be considered as a newspaper in the ordinary sense, and should be held liable for libel. Incidentally, they have also been called upon to make with the Inland Revenue authorities the legal deposit required of newspapers, and which they had, up to the present, managed to escape.

"Rome has seldom witnessed such an outpouring of devotion as attended the opening of the Eucharistic Congress," says the Catholic Transcript. "Friday, June 2, six thousand delegates were in attendance when Cardinal Respighi declared the Congress formally opened. The grand old basilica of St. John Lateran was worthy of the gathering, holding as it does the table which was used at the institution of the Blessed Eucharist. All the Cardinals of the Curia, and over three hundred prelates, including patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, and heads of religious orders, attended the closing exercises, Pius X. imparting his blessing to twenty thousand persons. The Congress has demonstrated to the world that in the very centre of Christendom the great standard devotion of the Church is in full flower. Nothing fits in more harmoniously with the only declared policy of the present Pontiff of restoring all things in Christ. The Eucharist is the source whence all blessings emanate. Pledged to propagate devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharistic Congress is deserving of heaven's choicest benedictions."

Our men's famous boots at $3.00, price stamped on the sole, is without doubt the best boot in Canada for that money. You should have a pair. For sale by J. B. McDonald and Co. m 17, 6i

See the splendid lines of men's and women's Boots and Shoes, new stock just opened at money saving prices at J. B. McDonald and Co's.

The woman who buys Dress Goods now-a-days; has yet to buy right, but buying right does not mean a matter of "How Cheap." A-how cheap dress that is old fashioned and that will not stand the wear and tear is not the one wide awake people buy. They want a dress right up-to-date in every particular. Quality, style, we have, and good wear resisting qualities. This is the kind we sell. Send for samples.—Stanley Bros.

to our Government if the pale-faced land thieves are allowed to drive these men from the territory watered, cultivated, and enriched by their labors."

Right Rev. Mgr. Nugent arrived in Liverpool at noon on Wednesday, May 17. In his appearance there are traces of the rheumatic attack from which he suffered in the United States, but it is confidently hoped that he will soon recover his good health and wonted energy.

Commenting on the attempt made on the life of the young King of Spain the other day in Paris, the Catholic Advance says: "There does not seem to be any motive aside from the anarchists' declared hatred of all kings and governments. The monarch himself, scarcely more than a boy, has shown a lively interest in the welfare of his people, he has been carefully trained, and his knowledge of Statecraft is said to be far beyond his years. His reign promises to be a happy one for Spain, and his contemplated marriage to an English princess would bring his country into close relationship with the land that is held up for admiration as a model of commercial prosperity and personal liberty. But, then, anarchy does not reason."

The French Freemasons have really fallen on evil days. The scandal of delation in the army began to shatter their influence, and they cannot recover from the shock which the Ninth Court of the Paris Correctional Tribunal gave them by giving a verdict with damages in an action for libel brought against their periodical, the "Bulletin de la Franc-Maçonnerie." They had succeeded in establishing a kind of jurisprudence to the effect that as the paper in question was only circulated among Freemasons, the contents were not "published" in the legal sense of the word, and were privileged. Under this usurped cloak of privilege they slandered and libeled right and left. The Ninth Court has now decided that the "Bulletin" should be considered as a newspaper in the ordinary sense, and should be held liable for libel. Incidentally, they have also been called upon to make with the Inland Revenue authorities the legal deposit required of newspapers, and which they had, up to the present, managed to escape.

"Rome has seldom witnessed such an outpouring of devotion as attended the opening of the Eucharistic Congress," says the Catholic Transcript. "Friday, June 2, six thousand delegates were in attendance when Cardinal Respighi declared the Congress formally opened. The grand old basilica of St. John Lateran was worthy of the gathering, holding as it does the table which was used at the institution of the Blessed Eucharist. All the Cardinals of the Curia, and over three hundred prelates, including patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, and heads of religious orders, attended the closing exercises, Pius X. imparting his blessing to twenty thousand persons. The Congress has demonstrated to the world that in the very centre of Christendom the great standard devotion of the Church is in full flower. Nothing fits in more harmoniously with the only declared policy of the present Pontiff of restoring all things in Christ. The Eucharist is the source whence all blessings emanate. Pledged to propagate devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharistic Congress is deserving of heaven's choicest benedictions."

Our men's famous boots at $3.00, price stamped on the sole, is without doubt the best boot in Canada for that money. You should have a pair. For sale by J. B. McDonald and Co. m 17, 6i

See the splendid lines of men's and women's Boots and Shoes, new stock just opened at money saving prices at J. B. McDonald and Co's.

The woman who buys Dress Goods now-a-days; has yet to buy right, but buying right does not mean a matter of "How Cheap." A-how cheap dress that is old fashioned and that will not stand the wear and tear is not the one wide awake people buy. They want a dress right up-to-date in every particular. Quality, style, we have, and good wear resisting qualities. This is the kind we sell. Send for samples.—Stanley Bros.

to our Government if the pale-faced land thieves are allowed to drive these men from the territory watered, cultivated, and enriched by their labors."

Right Rev. Mgr. Nugent arrived in Liverpool at noon on Wednesday, May 17. In his appearance there are traces of the rheumatic attack from which he suffered in the United States, but it is confidently hoped that he will soon recover his good health and wonted energy.

Commenting on the attempt made on the life of the young King of Spain the other day in Paris, the Catholic Advance says: "There does not seem to be any motive aside from the anarchists' declared hatred of all kings and governments. The monarch himself, scarcely more than a boy, has shown a lively interest in the welfare of his people, he has been carefully trained, and his knowledge of Statecraft is said to be far beyond his years. His reign promises to be a happy one for Spain, and his contemplated marriage to an English princess would bring his country into close relationship with the land that is held up for admiration as a model of commercial prosperity and personal liberty. But, then, anarchy does not reason."

The French Freemasons have really fallen on evil days. The scandal of delation in the army began to shatter their influence, and they cannot recover from the shock which the Ninth Court of the Paris Correctional Tribunal gave them by giving a verdict with damages in an action for libel brought against their periodical, the "Bulletin de la Franc-Maçonnerie." They had succeeded in establishing a kind of jurisprudence to the effect that as the paper in question was only circulated among Freemasons, the contents were not "published" in the legal sense of the word, and were privileged. Under this usurped cloak of privilege they slandered and libeled right and left. The Ninth Court has now decided that the "Bulletin" should be considered as a newspaper in the ordinary sense, and should be held liable for libel. Incidentally, they have also been called upon to make with the Inland Revenue authorities the legal deposit required of newspapers, and which they had, up to the present, managed to escape.

"Rome has seldom witnessed such an outpouring of devotion as attended the opening of the Eucharistic Congress," says the Catholic Transcript. "Friday, June 2, six thousand delegates were in attendance when Cardinal Respighi declared the Congress formally opened. The grand old basilica of St. John Lateran was worthy of the gathering, holding as it does the table which was used at the institution of the Blessed Eucharist. All the Cardinals of the Curia, and over three hundred prelates, including patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, and heads of religious orders, attended the closing exercises, Pius X. imparting his blessing to twenty thousand persons. The Congress has demonstrated to the world that in the very centre of Christendom the great standard devotion of the Church is in full flower. Nothing fits in more harmoniously with the only declared policy of the present Pontiff of restoring all things in Christ. The Eucharist is the source whence all blessings emanate. Pledged to propagate devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharistic Congress is deserving of heaven's choicest benedictions."

Our men's famous boots at $3.00, price stamped on the sole, is without doubt the best boot in Canada for that money. You should have a pair. For sale by J. B. McDonald and Co. m 17, 6i

See the splendid lines of men's and women's Boots and Shoes, new stock just opened at money saving prices at J. B. McDonald and Co's.

The woman who buys Dress Goods now-a-days; has yet to buy right, but buying right does not mean a matter of "How Cheap." A-how cheap dress that is old fashioned and that will not stand the wear and tear is not the one wide awake people buy. They want a dress right up-to-date in every particular. Quality, style, we have, and good wear resisting qualities. This is the kind we sell. Send for samples.—Stanley Bros.

to our Government if the pale-faced land thieves are allowed to drive these men from the territory watered, cultivated, and enriched by their labors."

Right Rev. Mgr. Nugent arrived in Liverpool at noon on Wednesday, May 17. In his appearance there are traces of the rheumatic attack from which he suffered in the United States, but it is confidently hoped that he will soon recover his good health and wonted energy.

Commenting on the attempt made on the life of the young King of Spain the other day in Paris, the Catholic Advance says: "There does not seem to be any motive aside from the anarchists' declared hatred of all kings and governments. The monarch himself, scarcely more than a boy, has shown a lively interest in the welfare of his people, he has been carefully trained, and his knowledge of Statecraft is said to be far beyond his years. His reign promises to be a happy one for Spain, and his contemplated marriage to an English princess would bring his country into close relationship with the land that is held up for admiration as a model of commercial prosperity and personal liberty. But, then, anarchy does not reason."

The French Freemasons have really fallen on evil days. The scandal of delation in the army began to shatter their influence, and they cannot recover from the shock which the Ninth Court of the Paris Correctional Tribunal gave them by giving a verdict with damages in an action for libel brought against their periodical, the "Bulletin de la Franc-Maçonnerie." They had succeeded in establishing a kind of jurisprudence to the effect that as the paper in question was only circulated among Freemasons, the contents were not "published" in the legal sense of the word, and were privileged. Under this usurped cloak of privilege they slandered and libeled right and left. The Ninth Court has now decided that the "Bulletin" should be considered as a newspaper in the ordinary sense, and should be held liable for libel. Incidentally, they have also been called upon to make with the Inland Revenue authorities the legal deposit required of newspapers, and which they had, up to the present, managed to escape.

"Rome has seldom witnessed such an outpouring of devotion as attended the opening of the Eucharistic Congress," says the Catholic Transcript. "Friday, June 2, six thousand delegates were in attendance when Cardinal Respighi declared the Congress formally opened. The grand old basilica of St. John Lateran was worthy of the gathering, holding as it does the table which was used at the institution of the Blessed Eucharist. All the Cardinals of the Curia, and over three hundred prelates, including patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, and heads of religious orders, attended the closing exercises, Pius X. imparting his blessing to twenty thousand persons. The Congress has demonstrated to the world that in the very centre of Christendom the great standard devotion of the Church is in full flower. Nothing fits in more harmoniously with the only declared policy of the present Pontiff of restoring all things in Christ. The Eucharist is the source whence all blessings emanate. Pledged to propagate devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharistic Congress is deserving of heaven's choicest benedictions."

Our men's famous boots at $3.00, price stamped on the sole, is without doubt the best boot in Canada for that money. You should have a pair. For sale by J. B. McDonald and Co. m 17, 6i

See the splendid lines of men's and women's Boots and Shoes, new stock just opened at money saving prices at J. B. McDonald and Co's.

The woman who buys Dress Goods now-a-days; has yet to buy right, but buying right does not mean a matter of "How Cheap." A-how cheap dress that is old fashioned and that will not stand the wear and tear is not the one wide awake people buy. They want a dress right up-to-date in every particular. Quality, style, we have, and good wear resisting qualities. This is the kind we sell. Send for samples.—Stanley Bros.

to our Government if the pale-faced land thieves are allowed to drive these men from the territory watered, cultivated, and enriched by their labors."

Right Rev. Mgr. Nugent arrived in Liverpool at noon on Wednesday, May 17. In his appearance there are traces of the rheumatic attack from which he suffered in the United States, but it is confidently hoped that he will soon recover his good health and wonted energy.

Commenting on the attempt made on the life of the young King of Spain the other day in Paris, the Catholic Advance says: "There does not seem to be any motive aside from the anarchists' declared hatred of all kings and governments. The monarch himself, scarcely more than a boy, has shown a lively interest in the welfare