New Furness Boat Here.

At nine o'clock last night, the new Furness Line steamer Digby, which is scheduled for two more trips on the Liverpool-St. John's and Halifax route, carrying mails and passengers, steamed into port. The passage occupied seven days, seven hours. The ship left Liverpool at 2 p.m. Thursday, May 8th. Exceptionally good headway was made for about four days of the voyage, the ship making fourteen knots, but after that dense fog was met and consequently the ship was detained. At 3 p.m. yesterday she was eighty miles off this port. Conditions were then favorable and the Digby finished her maiden voyage in splendid style. The Digby brought 28 packages of mail matter, 500 tons of cargo, and as passengers—Dr. J. G. Duncan, Rev. H. Uphill, S. Daisch and J. Deatherby. The ship is about equal in point of accommodation to the Mongolian, though can steam faster as she is new. The Digby is fitted with modern conveniences, and will afford comfort to travellers. The most competent and experienced stewards are attached to the ship. Capt. Trinick, who is in command of the Digby, is well known here, having been a former master of the Furness liner Shenandoah which used to run here. His Chief Officer is C. S. Emmett; Surgeon, Dr. H. Godden Cole, and Chief Steward, F. B. Webb, who came here several years in the Almeriana and Tobasco.

On Tuesday night last an interesting concert was held on board the ship. Dr. Duncan presided, and Rev. H. Uphill contributed selections. The sum of £2 15s. 5d. was taken up for the Marine Disaster Fund. All monies collected are left to Chief Steward Webb for distribution to whatever purpose he sees merits the amount most. A reception will be held on board the Digby this afternoon, and she sails for Halifax tomorrow.

The New Troupe at Rossley's.

On Monday a new company opens an engagement at Rossley's Theatre. There will be enough variety to please every one, as there are both dramatic and vaudeville people included. The new company will open up with Lorraine, Buchanan and Billy Devens will be seen in a fine sketch, entitled "The Girl and the Detective," introducing new songs. Then Cook and Beall will present "Just Kido," with singing, dancing and talking, jokes and stories, with splendid wardrobe. They left New York on the Stephano and will arrive in time to open Monday. Last night the Star was filled, not a vacant seat to be had, and the way the audience laughed at the sketch showed how thoroughly they enjoyed the show, with Jack Rossley in the leading role.

WANTON CONDUCT.—Last night, some thoughtless person, who evidently was looking for amusement, rolled a wire hoop through the centre portion of Water Street at top notch speed. It struck a citizen, who was standing near the City Club door, in the leg.

Report for Season 1912

We congratulate the League on closing its seventeenth season and beg to submit the following report therefor.

There was no change from the previous year in the clubs competing in the championship competition, and at the conclusion of the series of games the order stood:—Star, Collegians, C.E.I., B.I.S. St. Bonaventure's, Fieldians, and Casuals.

It will be noted that the Stars for their eighth time since the inception of the League carried off the premier honours. This remarkable showing is not to be wondered at when the consistent hard work of the team is borne in mind. No other club has so continuously maintained a reputation for regular practice and attention to the game, and last season was no exception in this respect. A feature of their play during the past year was the presence on the team of a number of "veterans" who clearly demonstrated that they had not lost any of their old goal getting art.

The Champions of the year previous—the Collegians—relinquished their place only after a stiff fight. All through their games they gave an excellent display, and their loss of the championship trophy was not a matter of their own doing.

The C.E.I. remained content with their position of the year previous, the B.I.S., St. Bon's, and Fieldians improved slightly, whilst the Casuals moved in the reverse direction and headed the list at the wrong end for their first time.

The games were fairly well contested throughout, and the leading teams particularly played to an average standard. This was accounted for by the clubs paying attention to the matter of practice, the corresponding poor display by the others being due to a lack of this very essential element to good football.

The Brigade Championship for the third successive season went to the Catholic Cadet Corps, who thus became the absolute winners of the first trophy symbolic of the inter-brigade football championship. The result was not unexpected after the opening games, because the team was decidedly superior to those opposing. The Methodist Guards, Highlanders and Church Lane Brigade followed in the order named.

During the season a special game was arranged between a team representing the city and one from the members of the Diocesan Synod, at the time in session. Despite the fact that some of the latter had for several years been out of active service in the game, the clerical representatives made an excellent fight against their opponents, who, however, registered on the right side in the goal scoring. The proceeds of the game went to the fund in aid of those who suffered by the loss of the ill-fated "Erna," an object which besides being particularly worthy was peculiarly fitting in as much as amongst those who were on board that ship was one who had been for years prominent in League games.

The financial side of the season was not equal to the previous year, the total receipts being £1213.61 against £1438.83 for 1911, and disbursements $1160.94 compared with $1413.00. The shortage in receipts is due to the fact that the weather was particularly unfavourable the greater number of the games being played under conditions which would be borne only by the genuine enthusiast amongst the on-lookers. But for this we feel sure that the season would have yielded unusually good results financially, an opinion based on the receipts of fine evenings. The total fund now to the League's credit is $2831.43.

To the members of the League generally we return thanks for kind assistance throughout the year.

On behalf of the officers,
MARK CHARLIN, President.
W. J. HIGGINS, Secretary.

Cable News.

LONDON, May 15.

Although it is officially asserted that the proposed visit of Viscount Morley, to Berlin, is of a purely private nature, there is a strong belief that it may involve political possibilities, as did Lord Haldane's last visit, which was similarly described as private. Lord Morley presided over the Ambassadorial Conference, recently, in Earl Grey's absence, and it is suggested he may be entrusted with some mission in connection with the Balkan settlement, or with the task of arranging, if possible, an understanding with Germany. The Daily News is convinced Lord Morley has been entrusted with a political mission, the object of which is to arrange an entente with Germany. Referring to the reports of an agreement having been reached between Britain and Turkey, regarding the Bagdad railway, which will give Germany a foothold in the Persian Gulf, the Daily News believes this agreement will be published on the occasion of the wedding of Princess Victoria Louise, and that it can hardly have been concluded without a general Anglo-German understanding covering the rear, middle and possibly the Far East. Further.

ther, the resignation of Sir Gerald Augustus Lowther, Ambassador to Turkey and the report that Sir Arthur Nicholson, the permanent head of the foreign office, is likely to be an advocate of German entente, all seem, according to the paper, to point to a separate mission.

LONDON, To-day.

Six militant suffragette leaders and male adherents of the cause, were committed to-day by Henry Curtis Bennett, magistrate at Bow Street Court, to take their trial at the Old Bailey sessions, on charges of conspiracy under the Malignous Damage to Property Act. All of them pleaded "Not Guilty." Bail was allowed on the usual undertaking being given by the prisoners that they would refrain from all participation in militancy, pending trial.

An Imposing Funeral.

The funeral of the late Oliphant Butler, took place at 3 p.m. yesterday, from his late residence Cabot Street and was attended by a concourse of citizens of all denominations. The remains were enclosed in a handsome casket of polished oak, which was literally covered with flowers and wreaths the gifts of comrades and friends. Mr. S. G. Collier acted as undertaker, and the hearse was preceded by the Nfld. Highlanders, under Capt. Goodridge and Lieut. Henderson. Interment was at the General Protestant Cemetery. On the way to the burial ground, the pipers of the Highland Battalion rendered the Dead March. Rev. Dr. Rogers officiated at the graveside where after the body was consigned to Mother Earth, a rifle squad of the Highlanders fired three volleys over the grave and the bugler sounded the "Last Post," the mournful strains of "The Lament" being then given by Piper Mercer. The great number who attended the funeral was an evidence of the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held.

Football Annual.

The Football League held its annual meeting last night and elected the following officers: President, M. Chaplin; Vice-Pres. E. M. Jackson; Treasurer, E. S. Piment; Secretary, W. J. Higgins. Messrs. J. Jardine and J. Crotty were elected auditors. Votes of thanks were passed to Messrs. C. Ellis and J. Vinnicombe—the former the retired Treasurer and the latter for conducting the election. The fixtures drawn for the first round are: Fieldians vs. St. Bon's. Collegians vs. C. E. I. Star vs. B. I. S. Casuals (bye).

The opening match of the season will take place on Monday, June 2nd.

New Pilot Boat.

A new motor boat, built to the order of the Master Pilots, has just been launched. It is fitted with a 16 horse power gasoline engine, is capable of making twelve knots and is the second boat of its type to be put in commission in the pilot service. This new and up to date method speaks well for the enterprise of the pilots. It does away with the old-time row boats.

Schooner Lost.

Geo. Perrett had the misfortune Friday to have his right arm broken and the wrist thrown out of place. He was operating the crank shaft of his motor boat when the engine "kicked back" caused the injuries referred to above. Dr. Fisher attended the injured limb it will be some weeks before Mr. Perrett will be able to use his arm, and as a consequence he will have to abandon the prospects of prosecuting the approaching fishery.—Western Star, May 14.
