Third Bye-Election Defeat for Bonar Law.

Labor Wins Edgehill Division, Liverpool-- Opposition in Parliament Urge Britain to Act--Turks Reject Lausanne Treaty.

ANOTHER DEFEAT. LONDON, March 6. Another member of the Bonar Law Government, John Walter Hills, Financial Secretary of the Treasury, was defeated for a seat in Parliament in a bye-election to-day. The announcement caused a tremendous stir in political circles tonight. Sir W. W. Rutherford, sitting member for Edgehill Division of Liverpool, retired to provide a seat for Mr. Hills. The polling gave J. H. Hayes, Labor, 10,300, and Mr. Hills, Conservative, 9,250. Edgehill has been a Conservative stronghold and apparently nobody doubted Mr. Hills would be returned. The Labor candidate was said to have not the least expectation of victory. The successive defeats of three Cabinet Ministers in bye-elections is unprecedented in Parliamentary history. The opinion in all quarters is that the incident is a serious embarrassment to the Government whose position thus shaken will demand serious consideration. It is assumed the housing plan will be recast and the event of the Minister will be forced to take early steps to strengthen the Cabinet.

THE RUHR DEBATE. LONDON, March 6. The debate in the Commons tonight on the Ruhr reflected the strong growing feeling observed lately in the Liberal and Labor press deprecating the government's attitude of benevolent neutrality, and insisting that Great Britain take a definite stand, not necessarily withdrawing troops from the Rhine but informing France plainly in a formal note that Britain disapproves of the French policy and demands that the French government explicitly define its intentions towards Germany. J. Ramsay MacDonald moved a resolution that with a view of securing peace, Great Britain should invite France and the Belgian Chambers to appoint representative committees to meet a similar committee of the Commons to exchange views on the occupation of Ruhr and the problems of security and reparations. MacDonald supported the resolution in a speech characterized by moderation. Bonar Law agreed with many of his statements, but maintained the time was not ripe for intervention, and that such a move would be regarded as hostile to France. He appealed to the Labor leader not to press the matter to a division and the resolution was talked out. MacDonald declared France was re-writing the Treaty of Versailles, without consulting her Allies and events were happening that were only too likely to lead to a new war. He feared the nations were becoming less shamefaced in openly talking of preparations for the next war. He urged that Great Britain should have the courage to give a moral lead to Europe and define her position and stand by it. The Prime Minister declared France had gained nothing by the Ruhr adventure, on the contrary she had sustained a heavy loss and it was impossible to prophesy the outcome. He admitted that the Government had nothing it could propose to the House and said that perhaps the absence of a policy was bad but to have a policy which would not succeed and which in itself was bad would be even worse. The only two courses, the Prime Minister said, were to accept the Ruhr advance with the greatest amount of friendly feeling possible or to break faith and make the countries practically hostile.

BRITAIN AND THE RUHR. LONDON, March 6. During the debate on the Ruhr question in the Commons this evening, Mr. Bonar Law maintained his previous position that intervention by Great Britain at the present moment would be useless. Such a move, he declared would be regarded as hostile by France and the Government was unprepared to assume that responsibility. TURKS REJECT TREATY. LONDON, March 6. The Turkish National Assembly at Ankara has rejected the Lausanne

Treaty, according to a Constantinople despatch to Reuters. The official programme from Ankara, it is announced, states that the Assembly gave its decision this afternoon that the draft treaty of Lausanne was unacceptable as it was contrary to the National Pact. The Assembly disclaimed responsibility in the event of the powers insisting acceptance of the spirit and letter of the treaty.

FRANCE HAS ANOTHER SUGGESTION.

PARIS, March 6. That France ought to provide for her own security by insisting upon an independent Westphalia and an independent Rhenland when Germany eventually gets ready to negotiate the final reparations settlement is the opinion expressed in the lobbies of the Chamber and finding echoes in the press. How to deal with Germany has been a common subject of discussion in political circles where the backdown of the Berlin Government is expected within three months. There is general insistence upon the necessity of avoiding complications that have heretofore resulted from differences among the Allies themselves and in some circles, generally well informed, it is even said Great Britain must not be admitted to the negotiations unless it is understood beforehand she will support France in a vigorous programme for the execution of the reparations.

FRANCE DETERMINED.

PARIS, March 6. The decision of the Ministry of War to keep the class of 1921 under the colors until the end of May together with a project for six months volunteers, is interpreted in some quarters of the Government's determination to wear out the Germans, and also a sign that the Government is convinced the Germans will make every effort to continue their resistance.

SYDNEY'S MUNICIPAL RESULTS.

SYDNEY, N.S., March 6. Mayor William Fitzgerald was re-elected Mayor of Sydney to-day. All but two of the Labor candidates were defeated and as a result Labor loses the absolute control of the Council. It still holds a voting majority of two through the support of three Aldermen who are business men but nominally adhere to the Labor cause.

The City Streets.

Dear Sir--Allow me to make a few comments on the disgraceful condition of the streets since the recent snow storm. Can not the Government or Municipal Council set gangs of men to work levelling the humps and hollows thereby making travel less difficult for horses and pedestrians. I have travelled to some extent, but have never seen such a discreditable and unclean condition of streets and sidewalks in any town of 32,000 population, which makes any pretence toward progress. One thing is certain, Mr. Editor, there is no civic pride in St. John's. The excuse of no money from the Government will not work as its members find money for every bad and wild cat scheme. Thanking you for space. Yours truly, A.B.C. March 5th, 1923.

LOCAL NEWS FALSIFIED IN COMPILATION.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir--Advised by friends by telegraph that an incorrect and prejudiced report of the Sealer's meeting, held in the Grenfell Hall on Saturday night, had been broadcasted throughout the country through the public news, our representatives called upon Postmaster General Halfyard with the object of procuring a copy of the message, sent out. That gentleman gave us no satisfaction, professing it was beyond his power to grant our request, though we now know that as head of the Department, he could and should have procured a copy of the message, as it was public property. From another source, however, we procured a copy of Monday's message, and from it discovered that the Hon. A. W. Mews, who we were informed by Hon. Mr. Halfyard compiles the messages had sent throughout the country a glaringly false report of the meeting. His message to the outpost offices read as follows:-- "Sealer's meeting on Saturday was addressed by Jesse Winsor, Sir J. C. Croble and J. R. Bennett. The two latter left immediately after speaking. A feature of the meeting was the unmistakable heartiness of cheers for Premier Squires and Hon. W. F. Coaker. Meeting advertised for 8 o'clock did not commence until nearly 9 o'clock. It is said, to reluctance of Opposition speakers in the necessity of avoiding complications that have heretofore resulted from differences among the Allies themselves and in some circles, generally well informed, it is even said Great Britain must not be admitted to the negotiations unless it is understood beforehand she will support France in a vigorous programme for the execution of the reparations.

Feldians Defeat Terras.

GOOD INDIVIDUAL PLAY WITNESSED. SCORE 6-4.

The smallest attendance of the season saw the final hockey match in the Tie-Cup Series at the Prince's rink last night. The Feldians were minus the services of Tall and Winter, who were replaced by Chandler and Fraser of the league team. Both youngsters made their first appearance in the Senior League last night, and turned in a fine game. In the first period the Terras Novas had matters pretty well all their own way. The game was fast, and good individual play was done by Canning of the Terras and Ewing of the Feldians. The first goal was scored by Canning after five minutes of play on a lone effort from mid-ice. Ewing made several good runs, but failed to get an opening. On one occasion he travelled the full length of the ice, but Payne who picks up a pretty pass lost a splendid opportunity to score. Canning for the Terras beat Hunt again just before the end of the period. The Feldians made several good tries on Brown, but failed to land a counter.

2ND PERIOD.

From the outset of play the Feldians kept the Terras into their own territory, and in less than five minutes Harold Rendell and Tommy Payne found the net, equalizing the score. Play was a give and take nature for a few minutes; several good individual runs were made by Power, Clarke and Canning for the Terras, while Rendell and Ewing played a prominent part on the defence. The Terras and black increased their lead to three goals three minutes later when Canning made another of his rink length runs, Hunt partly stopped the puck but Field skated in fast and landed the rubber in the twines. Jack Field who was working well, caused Hunt no little worry around the nets, and Nix was called upon to save several difficult shots. Tobin made a good run from near his own goal, and on a pass to Field, the latter sent the Feldian goalie a difficult shot, which he cleared safely to the side. The College lads evened up matters sixteen minutes after play, when Ewing, on a pass from Payne, scored a pretty goal. For the remaining minutes of the session good fast play was witnessed on both sides. A good clean exhibition of hockey was being shown up and not a single penalty was imposed by referee Herder up to this time. Just before the close Canning made a determined effort to score, when he was upset in the mouth of the Feldian goal, while Tobin missed the goal by inches before the gong sounded.

3RD PERIOD.

It was not until four minutes after play had opened up did the Feldians go out into the front position, Fraser scoring a beauty from the left wing on a pass from Payne, which proved too much for Brown. From then on the Feldians had the upper part of the game, and in less than four minutes, Ewing by a lone effort scored No. 5. Canning, who was playing a rattling good game, captured the puck near mid-ice and shooting from outside the defence sent a scorcher past Hunt. With only a one goal difference in the play, the game became fast and furious for some minutes. The Terras pressed hard to beat Nix or the equalizer, but he was always found in the right place at the proper time. Rendell uncorked several good runs but failed to score. Two minutes later the Feldians availed of a splendid opportunity when they caught the Terras Novas defence asleep. Harold Rendell picked up the disc near mid-ice, and passing to Hubert Rendell with only one defence man to pass, the latter beat Brown. No further scoring resulted, the gong sounded a few minutes later leaving the Feldians the victors by a score of 6 goals to 4. Last night's game was a fitting conclusion to a successful season's fixtures, not one player was ordered to the penalty box. Mr. Gus Herter refereed the game to the entire satisfaction of all.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about 25c.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too--children like it--and it is pure and good.

Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make 16 ounces--a family supply--but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about 25c.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too--children like it--and it is pure and good.

Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a 16-oz. bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make 16 ounces--a family supply--but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had
