THE CANADIAN PATRIOTIC FUND

His Excellency, the Governor-General, has been pleased to continue the policy of his predecessor, His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, in issuing a New Year appeal to the people of Canada to continue during the year 1918 the voluntary system of support so generously accorded during the past three and one-half years to the National Patriotic Fund. The appeal is as follows:

"After giving most careful consideration to various suggestions, the Executive Committee of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, consisting of men representing all parts of the Dominion, unanimously decided to appeal again to the public for voluntary support, rather than to ask that the burden be borne by the public treasury. This conclusion was reached only after all other alternatives had been exhaustively considered. As President of the Fund, I again ask the people of Canada to continue their generous effort to help the families of the gallant men who, on land and sea, are so nobly defending the Empire and maintaining the principles of liberty and justice. We at home know the sacrifices they are making, and the very least we can do is to give them the fullest assurance that those whom they left behind are well and adequately provided for. For over three years the Fund, thanks to the support which it has invariably received, has dealt in a thoroughly satisfactory manner with the ever-increasing demands upon it, and I am confident that, in the future as in the past, we shall regard it, not merely as a duty, but as a privilege, to render all the assistance which lies in our power to the cause which we all have so deeply at heart.—Devonshire."

"SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE"

Wild freaks of action! Weird tangling of circumstances! Sudden and dynamic changes of humor! These elements, and considerable more, make George M. Cohan's new Art-craft picture, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the most novel film of the year. When it was produced on the stage by George M. it defied the critics and won their most favorable reviews. It bewildered the audience and left them proclaiming it the most remarkable farce ever staged. It was heralded as the greatest novelty of the theatre and readily accepted as such wherever it appeared. On the screen of the Isis theatre soon this famous theatrical hit will disclose not only the usual mystery, humor and thrills displayed by the original play but also the inimitable George M. Cohan himself, plus the wide scope of the cinema which was denied its stage presentation.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glimmers with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and a fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.
