nection, so much the worse for British connection." The truth is, says the News, all Sirf John Macdonald's emphatic protests of devotion to the Crown and zeal for the empire are neither more nor less than what he thinks good electioneering business. If he were really imbued with the spirit of affection for the mother country which he so ardently professes, he could easily show it by admitting British goods duty free at once. Sir Richard Cartwright might as reasonably call Sir John Macdonaid a traitor for not doing so as he can call Sir Richard Cartwright a traitor for advocating reciprocity. Mr. Laurier's able and temperate speech contrasts most favorably with Sir John Macdonald's.

THE BLOQUENCE OF EMPTY WINDOWS.
OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—A correspondent of a local paper makes a hit when he points out that the highly-colored cartoons depicting the benefits which the National Policy has conferred on the country chiefly appear in the windows of empty stores, whose proprietors have gone into bankruptcy. Glowing descriptions, pictorial or otherwise, of the prosperity of the country, look and sound like ghastly jokes in this community, where scarcely a leading business house on the principal street has escaped financial embarrassments of a greater or less degree.

NOTES.

The Conservatives of Stanstead county have nominated Hon. C. C. Colby.

Mr. J. S. Corbin, president of the St. Lawrence Manufacturing Company, strongly favors Unrestricted Reciprocity.

Mr. W. H. Lockhart Gordon, a prominent Conservative of Toronto, is spporting the Liberal policy and candidates.

A Huron correspondent writes that a meeting called by Mr. Porter, Tory candidate for West Huron, at the school house, Wawanosh, three miles from Belgrave, was a complete failure, only four persons being present.

New York, Feb. 20.—A terrible collision between trains occurred in the tunnel of the New York Central and the New York and New Haven roads this morning. One of the trains caught fire, and a deplorable loss of life resulted. At 7:15 the 7:01 New Haven local passenger train, north-bound, approached the station at Eighty-sixth street. A mist filled the tunnel, and the lights had partially failed because of the storm of snow and hall which had lasted all morning. A train of sleeping cars was ahead on the same track the Now Haven train. This was run into by the New Haven local, which was going at a high rate of speed. The crash was terrible, and both trains, engines and cars were
