INTERNATIONAL LAW CONGRESS.
Brussels, Oct. 5.—At yesterday's session of the International Law Congress a resolution was passed providing that the next meeting of the congress be held in the United States during the year 1897.

AN OCEAN MYSTERY.
London, Oct. 5.—A large two-masted steamer, with one white-banded funnel, making heavy weather, was seen yesterday morning four miles off Gravesend, heading for Plymouth. The steamer suddenly vanished, and it is supposed that she foundered.

ALL HANDS LOST.
London, Oct. 5.—The British brigantine Zoe was driven upon the sands in the Bristol Channel, near the Mumbles, yesterday, and broke up while a lifeboat was proceeding to her assistance. Her crew were lost. The Zoe was of 165 tons, and was owned by Mr. Fleetwood.

WAS SHE WRECKED?
Madrid, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from Havana, to the Herald of this city, says it is reported that the Spanish cruiser Conde De Venadito, which was sent to the assistance of the wrecked cruiser, Cristobal Colon, has been lost. It should be added, however, that official dispatches received here today make no mention of such a report; therefore, it is hoped the news is not true.

FRANCE WANTS FUNDS.
Paris, Oct. 5.—The Figaro asserts that the Government, finding itself without ready money to carry on the campaign in Madagascar, withdrew 20,000,000 francs in rentes from the Caisse des Depots, and realized that amount from the securities on the Bourse. The effect of this action was to cause a decline in 3 per cent. The Figaro violently denounces this piece of financial sharp practice.

WON'T BUY AMERICAN SHIPS.
A New York Tribune special says: Private advices from warships given by Japan to the Cramps and the Union Iron Works, of San Francisco, were without foundation. Several Japanese leaders were strongly in favor of giving contracts to Americans, but others opposed this. They read extracts from American papers showing defects in the new American cruisers, and they argued from this that it would be folly to have such ships built for Japan.

MUST PAY THE PENALTY.
Munich, Bavaria, Oct. 5.—At the sitting of the Lower House of Parliament the Premier announced that the appeal of Mr. Louis Stern, of New York, sentenced to two weeks' imprisonment and a fine of 500 marks for insulting Baron von Thuengen, deputy commissioner of the Spa at Kissingen, has been rejected. An appeal to the Prince Regent of Bavaria in the last resort in such a case within the limits of Bavaria where Mr. Stern was tried, and he must either serve out his sentence and pay the fine imposed or forfeit his bail, which has been fixed at $20,000.

HONORING THE DEAD.
Paris, Oct. 4.—More than 20,000 persons marched in single file past the coffin of Prof. Louis Pasteur yesterday and viewed the body of the dead chemist and scientist, which lies in the Pasteur Institute. A provisional altar has been erected in the Cathedral of Notre Dame, in which the religious obsequies will take place on Saturday. The interior of the cathedral is draped with mourning cloths and emblems, and the ceiling is covered with garlands of flowers. The coffin is draped with the French flag and is surmounted by four plumes. Silver cables will be attached to the funeral car.

GLADSTONE ON LOCAL OPTION.
London, Oct. 5.—Hon. W. E. Gladstone has expressed his opinion of local option and the excise question in a letter to the Temperance Congress as follows: "While I have no doubt of the immense importance of the liquor question, I cannot pretend that I have mastered its difficulties. I see it clearly in some of its aspects, but as a whole it baffles me. I have no doubt that the local option principle is sound, but they must be of very sanguine temperament who believe that it is sufficient to dispose of the entire question. The method of the sale of liquor for public account, which exists in parts of Scandinavia, presents great advantages, and if adopted here ought to be adopted in its best form. The plan of free trade with strict police supervision and adequate taxation was unfortunately refused a fair trial in Great Britain. Of the scheme of mere limitation by reducing the number of licenses, I have a poor opinion."

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
The New York Herald's special from London says: With the reported session of Port Arthur to Russia, which, however, has since been emphatically denied from St. Petersburg, the Eastern question has suddenly come to the front again, and is now the leading subject of discussion in London's political circles and chief organs of the press. The English papers are anticipating that Japan will not be induced to evacuate the Liao Tung Peninsula without the possibility of friction with Russia. On this point Mr. Kato, the Japanese Minister to England, says: "There need be no mystery as to our delay in evacuating the peninsula. The Japanese are simply waiting for the first payment stipulated by the treaty of Shimonoseki. When these payments are made the Japanese troops will be withdrawn." Mr. Kato said that he did not believe the report that Port Arthur had been ceded to Russia. He continued: "Japan was forced to yield Port Arthur on the plea that her persevering in the occupation of it would harm eastern trade; to Russia, however, she saw how Russia could take possession of the place and avoid the application of the same argument to her own pretensions."

If this session to Russia were confirmed, "what would be the Japanese outlook in Korea?" "Very threatening," was his Excellency's reply, "with Russian troops at Vladivostok on the one hand, and Port Arthur on the other; but if this would be threatening to Japan, it would in my opinion be even more so to China."

THE CONSTANTINOPLE RIOTS.
London, Oct. 5.—The Armenian church at Constantinople and the other churches situated in different parts of the Turkish capital are still crowded with refugees. The scenes in the churches are heart-rending in the extreme. Many women and children are bewailing the loss of their husbands and fathers. The Armenians declare that the Turkish mob committed the most terrible excesses in the Karaghazimuk quarter of Constantinople during the night of Monday last, when the riots began. It is still impossible to announce the exact number killed or wounded; but all the accounts concur in saying that the Turkish mob committed here today more than 500 murders. According to the Armenians, about 200 persons have been killed during the rioting.

A deputation composed of 40 leading Armenians called at the British Embassy yesterday to see the British ambassador, Sir Philip Currie. They were informed that Sir Philip was absent, but they said they had come to see him and would wait there until he appeared.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from Constantinople says that one of the foreign delegates of the International Commission of Inquiry into the Armenian massacres, who arrived here yesterday, report will show that the total number of inhabitants of the Sassoun Valley did not exceed 4,000, and that the number of Armenians killed in the capture of the village of Semad, Shemak and Ghebluzan and in the taking of Antokhagh passes was at the most 300 to 500. It is also claimed that the report will demonstrate that there is no evidence that anyone was killed in cold blood, or that there were any mutilations of women or children. Finally, it is asserted by the delegate referred to, according to the correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette, that about 40 persons were buried in the death-pit at Ghebluzan, and that the statement that a number of women threw themselves over a cliff to avoid dishonor is false.
