MONDAY AFTERNOON.

charge of the different departments of taken up with the hearing of the case work in connection with the Y. M. C. of Robert Brown vs. George Kettlewell, farmers, in the township of Caradoc. The defendant is alleged to have thrusting a bamboo through the pig, A. E. Mathewson, John R. Anderson, rented a 60-acre farm from plaintiff for three years, the defendant agreeing to give plaintiff half of all the crops raised on the premises, to furnish plaintiff with teams and all farm implements, etc., necessary for the working of the farm, and, furthermore, that Kettlewell was to pay plaintiff $2 per week for his board. Brown claims that Kettlewell failed to carry out his agreement, in that he neglected to put in a well, that he did not pasture the cattle as he promised, and was indebt-ed for five weeks board; that he refused to allow plaintiff a fair share of the crop of corn, and did not give proper notice with the termination of the agreement. Plaintiff claims $200 and costs. Kettlewell's defense was that wn had on several occasions used threatening language, and in consequence he (Kettlewell) was afraid to go on the farm to carry out the agre Defendant denied all the claims of the plaintiff, and entered a counterclaim for $25. The balance, he alleged, was overdue and unpaid on a promissory note. He claimed another $25 for the pasture of ten head of cattle, also $30 for the use of defendant's team. and claimed damages because plaintiff had failed to deliver to him his proper share of produce of the farm.

San Francisco, June 8.—The peculiar status of the Durrant case is exciting an unusual amount of public ed Since the postponement of Worden's execution, the opinion is generally expressed that Durrant will not be hanged on Friday next. Attorney-General Fitzgerald says, however, that unless officially notified or restrained. Warden Hale stands ready to carry out the sentence. Warden Hale has asked for the opinion of the attorney-general who will render his decision tomor-

So confident is Durrant of the outcome of his appeal to the court of last resort, that he is already making plans for the future. It is generally believed among the legal fraternity that, pending the action of the Supreme Court, Gov. Budd will grant a reprieve in order to prevent the necessity of resentencing the prisoner, and the end-less litigation in which it might result.
