Efforts are being made at Hamilton, Ont., to raise one thousand dollars for a three days' winter meeting on Burlington bay, either in the last week in January or the first week in February.

An absurd story is going the rounds about Wm. Muldoon having a wrestling match with his boarding missis at San Francisco over 75 cents. Hanlan is reported to have witnessed the affair. In 1881, 260 horses trotted in better than 2.30; in 1882, 285, and in 1883, 352. Never before did so many green ones make their mark as in last year. Phallas' 2.15½ and Majolica's 2.17 were the most noteworthy. The much-talked of sparring match in New York between Hughey Burns and Joe Denning resulted in the former being knocked out in two rounds. He is no longer to be called the "Dangerous Black-

The Next Six-Day Wobble. NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Rowell and Fitzgerald are training at Wood's athletic grounds in Brooklyn, taking a daily spin of forty miles and egg and sherry at morning, noon and night. Noremac is training at the Manhattan athletic grounds. Emis, who has at last been discovered at Stamford will enter the contest and is said to ford, will enter the contest, and is said to be in training on the Connecticut turnpike. The entries will not be closed till the middle of February, and the race will take place the last week in that month. Mr. Vanderbilt's great interest in the walking match is well known, and has perhaps been due to the fact that he is the only man who has carried off any gate money in many of them. This year the walkers said that they would have their contest in Boston rather than pay $10,000 rent for the garden. They kept up conspicuous negotiations with Boston men for the hippodrome at the Hub. Mr. Vanderbilt doesn't care to have his garden lying vacant and serving merely as an archi-tectural ornament to the city. He came down, therefore, to $5,000, at which price the garden was accepted. Hart will not participate in the match. Epizoo in the Dwyer's Stable. New York, Jan. 5 .- A report of a seri ous sickness in the famous racing stable of the Dwyer Brothers, at Sheepshead bay, has been current in the city. Mr. Dwyer said to-day: "We have had the epizootic in the stable, and all have had a touch of it except the veterans Bootjack, Checkmate and Hartford. These are all in fine condition, especially Bootjack, who is as fat as butter and is feeding heavily, but 'epizoo' went through the rest of them like me through a family of children." READABLE PARAGRAPHS.

Truth is Mighty. -When Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N.
