A burning question—Who set fire to the leaves in the Park?

The anti-exemption convention should carry weight. The whole system it is protesting against is pernicious.

The Hamilton Herald advocates a tax on cats rather than on dogs. Its argument is probably not intended to convince, but it may serve to amews. That may be its purr-puss.

Ohio is stirring in the matter of the proper protection of the fish of Lake Erie. Michigan did the same thing some time ago, but Canada has always paid attention to her side of the lake.

The pay-roll of the officers and sailors of the United States navy amounts to eight millions of dollars a year. The navy consists of ——— well, when they get another ship they will have one.

An embezzling cashier of Ghent has been sentenced to 40 years' imprisonment, 5 years' police supervision, to restore the funds he embezzled and to forfeit his civil rights. The additions to the 40 years' imprisonment must worry him a good deal.

A Minneapolis man has just completed a design for a tower for the World's Fair. It would only cost $175,000,000 to build it. A trifle like that should not be allowed to stand in the way of a people whose tongues are hanging out for lack of a tower.

"You know I am from Montreal," said Mr. Wiman to a New York reporter the other day. In his recent lecture here 'Ras told his hearers he was proud of being a Torontonian. Just like the dear old hypocrite that he is! To-day, one thing; to-morrow, another.

The York Tribune, published at West Toronto Junction, is "in a position to state authoritatively that another session of the Ontario Legislature will take place before the next general election." Have we another one in the race for the organship of the Ontario Government?

The London Advertiser speaks of the American war as an "effort to put down the traffic in human flesh." This shows lamentable ignorance as to the causes of the "late unpleasantness," as our neighbors facetiously call it. Slavery was not an issue on the go-in. It was an afterthought.

J. K. Bole, described as a business man of Montreal, has been telling a reporter of The Pittsburg Times "that the intelligent people of Canada are in favor of annexation and that it is only a matter of time before Canada will be a part of the United States." This may be regarded as a sort of hyper-Bole, so to speak.

It is reported that out of deference to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the London public is no longer allowed to witness the feeding of the snakes at the Zoological Gardens. The snakes are still fed just the same, however, but it is pleasing to know that the rabbits are not compelled to endure the shock consequent upon seeing themselves devoured.

The Halifax Chronicle speaks of the boundless possibilities which Free Trade with the United States open up." "Boundless possibilities" is good. There are "boundless possibilities" in store for the man who jumps overboard in mid-ocean. He may drown or be gobbled by sharks, but neither one of these "possibilities" is likely to prove very soothing to the man.

The lack of Sunday street cars stands in the way of real estate men and all who have property to dispose of in the suburbs. Strangers coming to the city and engaging in work cannot get out to survey the outlying districts during the week, and the walk is too far for Sundays. It would pay to have some means by which strangers could spy out the land and "size up" the wonderful growth of Toronto.

In its present anxiety to make itself appear as the organ of the Ontario Government, The Toronto Globe is a good deal in the position of the showman who wished it distinctly understood that it was "Codlin, not Short," who was the friend. Our recollection of the matter, unrefreshed by a reference to any recent three-ha'-penny edition of Dickens, is that neither Codlin nor Short benefited very materially in the end.

Mr. S. H. Janes, in his letter published herewith, propounds the curious opinion that "we owe the unprecedented growth of Toronto during the past few years in population and wealth" chiefly to the gentlemen who deal in land! The famous proposition that "Tenterden Steeple is the cause of Goodwin Sands" was reasonable in comparison with that of our excellent correspondent.—The Toronto Globe.

But these two assertions combined are a mere trifle when compared with The Globe's modest boast that Toronto's growth, prosperity, wealth and population are wholly and solely due to the fact of Hon. George Brown having established The Globe in Toronto, instead of in Hamilton or any other place, as he might have done.

Reflections After the Event.

This is what politicians over in those States which held elections on Tuesday week are indulging in a good deal after the event. There is not as much disposition now as there was a week ago to claim a national victory for the Democrats, though it remains among things settled that the Democrats did gain a number of local victories, some of them won largely in local or even municipal issues. Ex-Senator Platt, who acted as Republican "boss" for the State of New York, goes so far as to say that there the Democrats achieved success, but without profit. They got in their men, but by such weak majorities that another such victory would be equal to a disaster. Most of the lucky men, so called, were elected to office of some kind or other; giving results which answer well enough for the individual, but which sometimes bring little gain to the party. And now Mr. Platt claims that his party is assured of a majority at Albany in both State Senate and Assembly.

In Iowa, and elsewhere in the West, the belief got abroad that some of the Republican candidates were not as straight against the railway monopolies as they should have been, and this turned many "Granger" votes to the Democratic side. In Illinois, too, as has happened in New York before, the Prohibitionists joined hands with the Democrats against the Republicans, which largely affected the result. The Chicago Inter-Ocean calls attention to this as a danger signal; and says that the danger will be to the Prohibitionists themselves, and to the cause of Temperance generally; if they do not promptly shake off this immoral alliance of theirs, which is sure to bring them into trouble ere long. Everybody knows that in this most immoral alliance there is no sincerity whatever; but the Prohibitionists say they must have their own plan or nothing; and so on election day they find themselves voting in alliance with the most notorious liquor men. We believe that just this sort of thing has happened frequently in Canada, and has not been uncommon in this very city of Toronto.

An alliance between prohibition and whisky does not look well, to say the least; and it seems difficult to imagine how men claiming to be honest and sincere manage to bring themselves to join in it.

THE TRUSTEES ADJOURN

Rev. J. Somerville of Owen Sound Elected to the Presidency For 1889-90.

The Public and High School Trustees concluded their session yesterday afternoon.

Judge Bell made an excellent chairman. The election of officers resulted:

President — Rev. J. Somerville, M. A., Owen Sound.

Vice-Presidents—John J. MacCracken, B. A., Ottawa; S. F. Lazier, Hamilton.

Secretary-Treasurer—G. A. Aylesworth.

Executive Committee—H. A. E. Kent, Wm. Houston, Toronto; George Young, M. A., Trenton; Dr. W. J. Burns, Caledonia; Irvine Diamond, Belleville; Rev. G. G. McRobbie, Ph. D., Ridgetown; J. B. Fairbairn, Bowmanville; J. E. Farewell, LL. B., Whitby; Dr. Williams, Ingersoll; Judge Bell, Chatham; Walter McGibbon, St. Catharines.

A paper on "Entrance Examiners, and the Changes Proposed by the High School Masters," was read by Mr. J. E. Farewell. He then moved:

That in the opinion of this association no change in the statute as to the formation of Board of Examiners for entrance examinations is desirable; and that entrance examinations should be held at such times as will not interfere with the work of the High School, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the honorable the Minister of Education.

After considerable discussion the motion carried unanimously.

Messrs. Houston, Toronto; Young, Trenton; Diamond, Belleville; Fairburn, Bowmanville; Farewell, Whitby; Dr. Williams, Ingersoll; Rev. Mr. Somerville, Owen Sound; Lazier, Hamilton, and Judge Bell were appointed a committee to examine into the course of English studies in the high schools, as proposed by Mr. Houston's motion on Tuesday.

This motion by Mr. Young was offered and afterwards withdrawn on the grounds of expediency:

That we re-affirm the findings of previous conventions of this association, and incorporate the same with the resolutions passed on examinations and Board of Examiners and other entrance examinations to high schools; and that the executive present these same to the Minister of Education at the close of the session.

The system of teaching writing in public schools was laid over until next session. A report regarding certain alterations in the regulations was also laid over.

After the meeting the retiring chairman, Judge Bell, and the newly elected president, Rev. Mr. Somerville, waited upon the Minister of Education at his house and presented him with a copy of the resolutions passed at the meetings.

A number of the delegates, accompanied by Inspector Hughes and Secretary Wilkinson of the Toronto School Board, paid a visit to the Gladstone-avenue school, where they examined into the working of the Kindergarten system. The children sang several songs and went through the exercises for the benefit of the visitors.

The combination of ingredients found in Ayer's Pills renders them tonic and curative as well as cathartic. For this reason they are the best medicine for people of costive habit, as they restore the natural action of the bowels, without debilitating.

A. Lough of Alpena, Michigan, suffered twenty years with Dyspepsia and general debility, but found quick and permanent relief in Burdock Blood Bitters.

Damages Asked Against the City and Dr. Canniff.

A few days ago the family of Mr. Robert Fleming, No. 7 Carleton-avenue, were poisoned and the Health Officer, Dr. Canniff, stopped the milk supplied the family by Daniel Forsyth and warned all his patrons not to use the milk. The consequence was that Forsyth's milk business was paralysed. Subsequent chemical analysis, it seems, discloses the fact that there was no poison in the milk but, notwithstanding, it is alleged by the plaintiff that the Health Officer has taken no steps to remove the ban he has pronounced against the use of the milk. Messrs. Taylor, McCullough & Burns, therefore, in the interest of their client, Mr. Forsyth, yesterday issued a writ against the city of Toronto and Dr. Canniff, claiming $2000 damages for the wrongs complained of and the alleged false statements regarding the milk.

Consumption is Scrofula of the Lungs and is often incurable, but the Scrofula from which it arises may be cured by the purifying alterative tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters.

A Bright Christmas Promised.

This year's Christmas season is to be brightened by the publication of a lovely Christmas number of The Montreal Star, said by those who have had a private view to be a really wonderful publication that will astonish the public here and abroad. It is a pity the publishers cannot issue enough of these beautiful Christmas souvenirs so that everyone may be able to get a copy. It is exasperating to get disappointed when we look forward to these numbers to send to our friends across the sea. The trade tells us the only way is to leave your name at your regular newsdealer's, as those who apply for The Star late always get disappointed.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs, and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

Mr Marter Suffers Defeat in the Queen's Bench.

The Queen's Bench Divisional Court gave judgment yesterday setting aside the order made by Mr. Justice McMahon compelling the Gravenhurst Court of Revision to hear the appeals of Mr. G. F. Marter, M.L.A., Muskoka, and certain other ratepayers of Gravenhurst against their assessments. The consequence is that Mr. Marter will be left to his remedy by application to the County Judge for relief and will have to pay the costs of the proceedings so far.

The Disinfection of Books.

Dr. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, yesterday tested an apparatus for disinfecting books and like articles. The apparatus can be operated by tube connection with a gas jet. Satisfactory results were obtained.

Holloway's Corn Cure is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts, and only costs the small sum of twenty-five cents.

A Suit for Heavy Damages.

THE UNION SAYS KINGSTON

IS THE PLACE FOR THE RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH.

A Lively Meeting of the Executive Yesterday —R. Campbell Selected as Referee—Spalding Tells What He Thinks of Ward and the Brotherhood—Racing on English Turf.

A meeting of the executive of the Ontario Rugby Union was called for yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Keachie's. At that hour there were present Gerald Griffin, Ottawa College; Hugh Smith, secretary; L. Boyd, Toronto; E. Bayley, Toronto, and W. Ferguson, Upper Canada College. Mr. Boyd was compelled to leave, and with him went a majority of the committee. But it was agreed to continue as if Mr. Boyd were present. Then the four members began to talk. The only business before the meeting was the selection of grounds and referee for the Ottawa College-Toronto match. Mr. Griffin declared that his fifteen could not leave their city. Mr. Bayley apologized for declaring that he believed that to be a bluff. The U. C. delegate at first believed that the Torontos should visit Ottawa. After four hours' talk it was decided to adjourn until the evening. Then there was a full meeting. Besides those named there was present Mr. D. M. Robertson of Queen's College. It did not take long to settle the matter then. Five voted to play the match at Kingston, and Mr. Griffin was left out in the cold. Mr. R. Campbell of Brockville, being acceptable to both teams, was selected as the referee. Mr. Griffin was asked by Ottawa to come up from Port Hope to represent the college. His was a forlorn hope and he made the best of it. Another person would have given up in the afternoon.

Ottawa College has not officially declared that they will not leave Ottawa. The World stated last Monday that the Union would select Kingston for the match and that the college would go there. It only remains for them to do this and whoever wins should be satisfied with the result.

Colors of Ontario Rugby Clubs.

The secretary of the Ontario Rugby Union has received the official list of the adopted colors of the different clubs in the province. They are a novel lot and no two alike, although Toronto and Ottawa College differ but slightly. They are as follows:

Toronto—Claret jerseys and stockings, white knickers.

Queen's University—Dark navy blue jersey, navy blue knickers and stockings.

Toronto University—Dark blue jersey and stockings, white knickers.

Hamilton—Yellow and black jersey and stockings, white knickers.

Trinity College School—White jersey and knickers, red and black stockings.

Peterboro—Navy blue jersey and stockings, white knickers.

Royal Military College—White jersey with red collar and cuffs, white knickers with red stripes, red stockings.

London—Maroon and navy blue jersey and stockings, white knickers.

Ottawa City—Amber and black jersey, blue knickers and stockings.

The Veterans' Match To-Day.

There promises to be great sport at the veteran match this afternoon on the Bloor-street grounds. Some of the Torontos put in a little practise yesterday and with their professional knowledge of the game should give the Hams a lively time. The positions and names of the Toronto players are as follows: Back, A H Collins; halves, Lloyd Aldwell, R C Long, H J Bethune; quarter, A J Boyd; wings, J A McAndrew, H Torrance, W W Jones, A H Vankoughnet; forwards, Hume Blake, A E Plummer, A B Cameron, H F Wyatt, Harry Brock, E V Bayley. The game starts at 3.15 sharp and will be well worth attending.

Notes of the Kickers.

Trinity and Toronto Universities play their annual match on the 'Varsity Lawn this afternoon.

The return match between the law offices of Messrs. Moss and Blake has been indefinitely postponed.

Lehigh University scored 106 points to 0 against the State College team at Bethlehem, Pa., on Monday.

Galt refused to play the championship match with 'Varsity to-day, hence the game will take place in Galt on Saturday.

The football league match between the Torontos and Scots for Saturday has been declared off, the former refusing to play.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Phelps and Kranchoff Each Secure Four Votes for President.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Instead of proceeding to routine business to-day the American Association took up the question of election of President, a strong demand being made for that course. The result of a ballot was a deadlock, four votes being for L. T. Kranchoff of Kansas City and four for Zach Phelps of Louisville. Several succeeding ballots had a like result.

The faces of the delegates when they came out into the corridors wore a troubled expression. They divided into small groups, talked earnestly in a low tone and reluctantly made known that the association had struck a snag on the president question. Eight ineffectual ballots were taken, the convention was again called to order and at 3 p.m. some of the Association men in the corridors who were acquainted with the inside work of the meeting expressed the opinion that the convention would adjourn for the day without electing a president.

League Magnates on the Brotherhood.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—At the meeting of the National League to-day the reports of the board of directors and of the committee on playing rules were accepted. The committee appointed to confer with the Brotherhood of Ball Players June 15, last, consisting of A. G. Spalding, chairman, John I. Rogers and John B. Day, presented its report. It contained copies of the official correspondence between Spalding and John M. Ward. In a letter dated May 31 Ward stated the grievances of the players and asks that a committee be appointed to discuss them. In a letter to his fellow members Spalding sums up the points made by Ward as follows:

The Brotherhood claim the classification in its application violates the understanding had with the Brotherhood in 1887. They ask for a modification of the present system of buying and selling the release of players. They make one specific charge to the effect that Sutcliffe of the Cleveland club has been affected by the new classification rule, claiming that he received a salary of $2000 from the Detroit club in 1888, and had signed with the Cleveland club for 1889 at the classification figure of $1750. This, continues Spalding, was the only instance cited of Ward indicating where the classification rule clashed with the terms of the Brotherhood contract. With this exception Ward does not claim the League has violated the letter of the Brotherhood contract but the spirit thereof, claiming that while it was not specially written on the contract, it was understood that the total amount of salary paid a player, whether written in the contract or not, was to be the basis of reservation.

Continuing, Spalding denies there was such understanding, but that clause 20 of the league contract should be the basis of reservation for the ensuing year. Spalding does not think the matters of sufficient importance to warrant a special meeting of the league. Ward did not reply to Spalding's last letter and his next move was the formation of the players' league.

The report of the committee was accepted. Spalding further stated the Brotherhood had not substantiated its charges against the Cleveland club in the Sutcliffe case. He moved that the league itself decide on the case. After some discussion a resolution was adopted stating that there was some doubt as to whether Sutcliffe did not voluntarily consent to play for the Cleveland club for a less amount than was named in his contract with the Detroit club the year preceding, but that it was the plain intention on the part of both parties at the time the Brotherhood contract was agreed upon that the players when thereafter reserved for the ensuing season should receive not less than the same salary specified in the contract for the current season. The resolution therefore orders the secretary of the league to pay Sutcliffe the $250 which he claims.

The convention afterwards discussed the classification rules and the rules relating to the sale of players and the percentages of visiting clubs.

The Players' League.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 13.—A. L. Johnston, the promoter of the Players' League, has returned from New York. He says: "The new league will be a go. In all the cities we have the best of financial backing and the hearty cooperation of the players. I place no confidence in the stories of desertion. I have a telegram from Glasscock. He is all right. Hutchinson, Burns and Anson are the only players in the league that are not in the new deal. I expect the constitution of the organization shortly. Everything will be completed at the meeting in January."

Dust from the Diamond.

The Brotherhood Club of Pittsburg has secured a lease of the Exposition grounds for a term of five years.

Hanlon says that Glasscock and Denny will stick to the Brotherhood.

It is reported that the Brotherhood will rob the International of Umpire Bob Emslie.

The League Club of Pittsburg has signed another player in Kelty of the Mosfield Club.

The Philadelphia old League Club has signed Outfielder Maher and First Baseman McCarity of the Burlingtons. Myers, Mulvey and Farrar of the Brotherhood, it is said, will stick to this club swear or no swear.

Arlie Latham of the St. Louis Browns has signed a Chicago Brotherhood contract. Three more Association players are expected to go to the Windy City. Latham will sue Von Der Ahe for $900 deducted last season in fines.

A Philadelphia despatch says: Harry Wright has not yet signed with the Philadelphia Club. He and the officials have not come to terms as regards salary. Harry insists upon a three years' contract, while the latter are only willing to make it for two years.

American Turf Congress.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—There is a large gathering of horsemen from all parts of the west here to-day at the annual meeting of the American Turf Congress. A secret session was held. "Before this congress adjourns," said Secretary Brewster, "it will be safe to say action will have been taken upon the growing evil of allowing such awful numbers of poor horses to enter the lists. What is wanted is a nice track free from cheap selling horses, many of which are unfit to be classed as race horses, and to do away with the pool rooms except at the race track."

Rule 47 was amended by the congress to read: "There shall be no dash race given for horses 3 years old and upwards less than one mile."

Section H in the preamble and bylaws reading, "The subscribing jockey clubs agree that no contract for betting privileges be made with any association of bookmakers," was stricken out.

The rule in regard to foul riding and fraud was made to read: "Any one ruled off for a fraud shall stand ruled off for life."

Rule 160 was changed to the following: "When two or more horses start in a race in the same interest or owned wholly or in part by the same persons they shall be coupled and sold as one horse in all pools, Paris mutuals and book betting."

Senator Hearst Will Buy Sunol.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 13.—Senator George Hearst sent a dispatch to Senator Stanford, saying that if Sunol had not been sold he would give more for the filly than Bonner or any other man on earth. He also requested the senator to put a price on the horse Palo Alto. Hearst insists that money is not to stand in the way of keeping the fleet animals in California if $250,000 will buy Sunol. The senator is willing to produce the coin if it takes half a million.

The Pipe of Peace.

Mr. William G. Tapsfield, chief clerk in the office of R. L. Polk & Co., directory publishers, was agreeably surprised last evening when at the close of business his associate employes presented him with a handsomely mounted meerschaum pipe. The presentation was made feelingly by Mr. Preston. The occasion was the 47th anniversary of Mr. Tapsfield's birthday, and the employes took the occasion of showing their appreciation of the man by presenting him the "pipe of peace." Reference was made to Mr. Tapsfield's long service with the firm and the esteem in which he is held by all who know him.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

An Evening With Mrs. Scott-Siddons—The Theatres Next Week.

Mrs. Scott-Siddons appeared at Association Hall last evening, this being the first of a series of readings, the remainder of which are to be given on Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. The disagreeable weather of last evening interfered to some extent with the attendance, but the program was carried out to the full, and the lady proved herself to be, as she has long been recognized, a thorough artiste. Her versatility—her greatest charm—was made abundantly manifest during the evening, and she was accorded loud applause. Mrs. Scott-Siddons has lost none of her powers to please.

"Sweet Lavender" at the Grand.

The New York Tribune, in speaking of "Sweet Lavender," says: "'Sweet Lavender' is one of the conspicuous hits of the season. It is a thoroughly good play, strong in character and dialog. Noble and sweet in spirit, interesting in story. There is abundant prosperity in 'Sweet Lavender.'" It will be produced at the Grand Opera House next Monday evening. The sale of seats will begin to-morrow morning.

Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House.

All next week at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House that startling drama "True Irish Hearts" will be the attraction. The play, which is not new in Toronto, is surrounded with splendid scenic effects, especially the moonlight scene. The company is well balanced, and J. P. Sullivan as the hero is a clever actor, and his singing always takes with the large audiences that the play generally draws.

The Suspect at the Academy.

Mr. Percival T. Green, manager of the Academy, has secured a strong attraction to follow Bootles' Baby next week, that of Louis Nathan's great military drama from the French, with Mr. Henry Lee as the star, supported by Miss Minnie Seligman and a powerful company. "The Suspect," says The New York Sun, "is a strong drama throughout, while the leading part, that of the Duc de Presles, assumed by Henry Lee, is especially strong; there is not a part but that is exceedingly effective. The melodrama and the comedy are well balanced, the light and shade most admirably arranged in strong, intense interest and constantly sustained emotion." The engagement is for four nights, commencing Monday, with matinee on Wednesday.

Other Amusement Notes.

The Rudolph Aronson Comic Opera Company presented "Erminie" yesterday afternoon and "Nadjy" last night to large and enthusiastic audiences. "Nadjy" will be given again this evening. "Erminie" is booked for Saturday night.

"Bootles' Baby," as presented by Mr. Stevenson's Company of English Actors at the Academy of Music, is meeting with merited success. It will be given every evening this week with a matinee on Saturday.

The choir of the Church of the Redeemer, under the direction of the choir master, Mr. E. W. Schuch, and with Mr. Giuseppi Dinelli as organist, held its monthly service of song last evening and sang several anthems in excellent style. Solos were sung by Miss Alice Woltz, Miss Lettie Hackett, Mr. Sims Richards and Mr. C. W. Coleman. Organ solos were played by Mr. Dinelli and Mr. E. R. Doward.

This evening the I. P. B. S. will give its annual concert at the Pavilion. From the large number of seats already taken up a thoroughly representative audience may be expected. Clarke as cornet soloist.

THEIR CRY FOR FREEDOM.

THE IMMERSIONISTS WANT NO STATE INTERFERENCE.

In Congress They Boxed the Compass—Things Deep and High—Views Broad and Narrow—They Saw the Town and Said with David of Old, "My Feet Had Well-nigh Slipped!"

The second day's proceedings of the Baptist Congress were varied and comprehensive. Up betimes general business was despatched at 9 a.m. This was of interest to whom it may concern but not to The World's constituency.

This remark is also pertinent to the second item in the day's bill of fare: The discussion of "The Authority of Christian Consciousness." In this abstruse, semi-theological, semi-philosophical disquisition Professor Albert H. Newman of Toronto Baptist College was thoroughly at home; but one of his humbler (intellectually) brethren heaved a heavy sigh and pathetically, if not originally, exclaimed: "Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: it is high; I cannot attain unto it!"

Dr. Newman's paper was not only "high" but deep, replete with the results of profound investigation, charged with the learning of the schools, albeit pervaded with devout feeling and spiritual insight. Its reading led to the most animated discussion of the present meeting. Compliments outweighed criticisms, though the latter were legion and the official report of the three hours' debate will, six months hence, be in the book of the chronicles of the Toronto Congress and afford matter for many disquisitions lay and clerical in many places near and afar.

"When at Rome, do as the Romans do," is not a motto of the highest moral excellence, nor approved by "Christian Consciousness." Nevertheless our American visitors did as all other temporary sojourners amongst us—took the afternoon to "do the city." They saw the Lions—halls of learning, houses of prayer, and something more, a superabundance of sticky, clayey, slimy mud which baffled all their efforts to kick off as a testimony against us. Some of it perchance may be taken to the States to show that even American Baptists can annex something.

The night's bill of fare consisted of tax exemptions, separate schools, liberty of conscience, duty of the state, ditto of the church, and a re-hash of old speeches, garnished with some modern illustrations. After two hours' debate they were "of the same opinion still," for as regards state interference in matters religious last night's meeting in Jarvis-street showed the latest example of the unity of the church. The able and patient chairman of the day was Rev. Dr. Elder of New York.

A Church and State Debate.

Rev. A. H. Munro, St. Thomas, Ont., opened the discussion. At the outset he gave a resume of Macaulay's masterly and complete reply to Mr. Gladstone's famous paper on "Church and State."

Mr. Munro spoke with clear ringing voice and triumphantly maintained that Macaulay's theses were unanswerable. A government, he said, will best promote the objects of religion by keeping to its legitimate work of law and justice. Religion, he urged, needs nothing but a fair field and no favor, which is all it should receive.

A state church, he continued, promulgates manifold more error than truth. Where, he asked, is the line to be drawn as to the religion to be supported? Which of the thousand and one "isms," including the foreign "isms" and even cannibalism?

The New Testament knows nothing of any state church, and any such theory of a church is contrary to the fundamental principles of Christianity. Next Mr. Munro treated of the proper functions of government. Its spheres are legislation, judicature, education. The object of government and legislation is the temporal welfare of society, and the work of the state should be strictly confined to this object.

All history proves that the meddling of governments with the thoughts and beliefs of men has been productive of harm. The sphere of the church is spiritual, that of the state temporal. The one is divine and admits of no change, while the other is of the earth, earthy, and may be freely altered by men. The weapons of the one are not carnal, while those of the other range from the magistrate's warrant to fleets and armies.

The Christian church has nothing to give the state and should receive nothing from it except the protection it affords to all. The government should know no difference between a Baptist church and the lecture hall of an Atheist. [Applause.]

Exemptions from taxation of church property and clerical incomes he strenuously condemned. The state can not discriminate between the churches where truth and error is taught. The property exempted might include a Roman Catholic nunnery and Mormon church. Were these of moral benefit to the community?

The reading of the Bible in public schools should neither be enforced nor prohibited, but left to the will of the parents. In conclusion Mr. Munro objected to the state regulating the observance of the Sabbath as a religious duty. On purely economic, sanitary and moral grounds, the government alone could enforce such observance. The state had no right to prevent any man working on Sunday if he saw fit, but it should not allow railroads to work on Sunday more than is necessary for public convenience and a consideration of the law of mercy.

A Local Iconoclast.

Mr. D.E. Thomson secured a ringing cheer when he said "soul liberty is the keynote of Baptists." Then he launched off in a discussion of the anomaly of separate schools. The state, he vigorously asseverated, transcends its power in compelling any man to support religion. It is, said he, speciously urged that the support of separate schools is a bargain, a contract, and it would be a violation of faith to repudiate the contract. "I repudiate it," thundered the orator, and his repudiation was vigorously cheered. "The contract is ultra vires and contrary to the inherent rights which God has given me. I shall use my influence to have the separate school system abolished." [Loud cheers.]

The next topic of Mr. Thomson was religious instruction in public schools. It was not the duty of the state to enforce this. Tax exemptions of ecclesiastical buildings he regarded as "thinly-disguised state aid," and he hoped that not only Canadian Baptists but the vast body of their American brethren would wash their hands of the whole business.

Mr. John McLaurin of Woodstock said it as if he meant it—that the state has no authority to formulate a creed or construct a liturgy. Neither has it the right to place anyone under disability for belief or disbelief, conformity or nonconformity to any kind of worship. Tax exemptions he regarded as intolerable. In this connection he caused some amusement by telling how he once found in his pocket a railway ticket, on the back of which was printed "Clergymen and nuns half-fare." Why not Indians? [Applause.]

In conclusion he made a good home-thrust at Jarvis-street Church, when he said if they accepted $500 tax exemption they were practically taking money for Christian purposes from agnostics and even from the "heathen Chinee."

Something on the Other Side.

Rev. Leighton Williams, New York, emphasized that there can be no treaty between church and state, which are antagonistic. Still the church must seek to influence the state for good.

Rev. Walter Rauschenbusch, New York, objected to any compromise or via media in the relations of church and state. Still there was a duty between the two, the state must be built on righteousness and its legitimate goal is to be mergedr in "the kingdom of God on earth." The church must declare the truth to the state, and, if necessary, suffer through doing it.

Professor Johnston of Crozer Theological Seminary put in a counterbalancing note, as there had been so little divergence in the tone of the previous speakers. He said: "Don't go out of your way to oppose the state, and may it never be needful on account of anything she does for the state to put down the church."

Rev. A. P. McDiarmid of Ottawa also adopted a similar tack. He could not agree that church and state are antagonistic. They are merely distinct, and should be. Christ Himself said, "Render under Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's and to God the things that are God's."

The Chairman, in summing up the debate, commented on the wellnigh uniformity of view which had characterized it. Personally he inclined to the tenor of the last two speeches. Let them not forget that "the powers that be are ordained of God," and that the magistrate "bears not the sword in vain." Peter had "the keys" committed to him. Now, it would not do for the state to have the keys, else it might lock some out who ought to be in: and it would not do for the church to have the sword or, like Peter of old, it might be used for cutting off—not only a servant's right ear—but the ears of all dull hearers.

And with other pleasant, moderate remarks the chairman enforced that it would be a good thing for church and state to each mind its own business, do its own work and exert a beneficial reciprocal influence.

The congress will this morning discuss "The Sabbath Question," in the afternoon "The Disarmament of Nations" and in the evening a cold collation.

Ministers, lawyers, teachers and others whose occupation gives but little exercise should use Carter's Little Liver Pills for torpid liver and biliousness. One is a dose. Try them. 246

New Cure for Asthma.

OAK RIDGE, Oct. 21, 1889.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I read a letter in your paper from a lady living at Sunderland, Ont., giving the particulars of her cure from a lung disease by Dr. Hunter's treatment by Medicated Air. My own experience of this treatment is quite as satisfactory. I had been for thirteen years a victim of asthma, and had tried in vain to find relief. I was treated by a great many different doctors, and took all kinds of cure-alls without getting any real benefit. Hearing of Dr. Hunter's success with Medicated Air inhalation, I applied to him, and have since been under his care. His treatment has worked wonders in my case. I can now breathe with ease, sleep without coughing or oppression and feel in all respects as well as any man in this township. I began to gain my flesh and strength from the first week and have continued to gain right along. None but those who suffer as I have suffered for want of breath can know how thankful and grateful I feel for the great benefit I have received. I want all the world to know of this treatment, and those who have asthma to hear of my case. Kindly publish my letter and say that any who want to know more can come to see me or write to me. My address is Oak Ridge P.O., Ont. Yours

246 SAMUEL HUGHEY.

LUNATICS OF ROYALTY.

A Famous Asylum where the Inmates are Dukes, Princes and Counts—A Terrible Warning.

The most famous insane asylum in the world is at Doebling, about an hour's ride from Vienna. Many of the persons under restraint are of royal birth, while there is hardly one who has not figured in the contemporary history of Europe. The Duchess of Cumberland, Prince Rupert of Bavaria, Prince Montenuovo and Prince Sulkowski are among those who have obtained admission to this exclusive bedlam. In the most of these cases the insanity was caused by overwork, excitement, indulgence, high living and the different forms of dissipation. In a few it was hereditary. With the many it could surely have been prevented had the proper remedy been used.

The inability to remember and place some familiar face, a pain or tightness in the head, frequent watering of the eyes, absent mindedness, desire to sleep but impossibility to do so, were symptoms that showed the near approach of insanity or the terrible paresis. Had these people of royal birth adopted the right manner of living and then used that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, undoubtedly they would to-day have been enjoying to the fullest extent the delights of society and highest official position.

Let the inhabitants of Canada take this advice to themselves. Their constitutions may have been more vigorous, their nerves stronger and their brains brighter than these scions of royalty possessed. But overwork and high living will have the same effect. Their digestions will be impaired, their eyesight grow dim, nerves become weak and they will feel tired and unequal to the duties of business and society. A living death in an insane asylum may end the tragedy. Avert these awful consequences by using Paine's Celery Compound. It is a true invigorant and can always be relied upon. Thousands have found its claims to be true. Why not you?

Your Children

Are constantly exposed to danger from Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, and diseases peculiar to the throat and lungs. For such ailments, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, promptly administered, affords speedy relief and cure.

As a remedy for Whooping Cough, with which many of our children were afflicted, we used, during the past winter, with much satisfaction, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For this affection, we consider this preparation the most efficacious of all the medicines which have come to our knowledge.—Mary Parkhurst, Preceptress, Home for Little Wanderers, Doncaster, Md.

My children have been peculiarly subject to attacks of Croup, and I failed to find any effective remedy until I commenced administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This preparation relieves the difficulty of breathing and invariably cures the complaint.—David G. Starks, Chatham, Columbia Co., N. Y.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for many years, and have found it especially valuable in Whooping Cough. This medicine allays all irritation, prevents inflammation from extending to the lungs, and quickly subdues any tendency to Lung Complaint.—J. B. Wellington, Plainville, Mich.

I find no medicine so effective, for Croup and Whooping Cough, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It was the means of saving the life of my little boy, only six months old, carrying him safely through the worst case of Whooping Cough I ever saw.—Jane Malone, Piney Flats, Tenn.
