WONDERFUL RECOVERY OF HAIR
After 18, 25, and 26 years loss.

A few attestations, (selected from number less others, received during the last 40 years) to the virtues of ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL: the originals of which may be seen at the Proprietors.

TO MESSRS. ROWLAND AND SON, 20, BATTON GARDEN, LONDON.
HUMPHREY HOTEL, COVENT GARDEN.
February 10, 1843

GENTLEMEN,
In announcing to you the following corroborative testimony of the efficacy of your Macassar Oil, I do so with the assurance that it will be of any service, I shall consider myself but returning to a very small degree the great obligation I feel to you, and shall be most happy during my stay in London to satisfy any Gentlemen who may feel interested in the truth of the following—

In the year 1776 I went to India, and shortly after my arrival there my hair fell off in considerable quantities, so that I soon became entirely bald. In which state I remained until my arrival last year in America, and at Boston was induced by reading one of your Advertisements to make trial of your Macassar Oil, though I confess with but little hope of success. After the use of one bottle, I found my hair to have been covered with a sort of down, continuing the use of the Oil, much to the gratification, I have now the pleasure to inform you, without exaggeration or vanity, that I can boast of as fine a head of hair as any one need to have.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your grateful Servant,
A. MACKENZIE.

GENTLEMEN.—I take the liberty of addressing my thanks to you for the great benefit I have received from your truly valuable Macassar Oil. Having had the misfortune to lose my hair at the age of five and twenty, in consequence of my stay in India, I was lately induced, at the instance of a friend, to make trial of your excellent specific, and can only say that the effects were most surprising, for in a very short space of time, my hair, which was before entirely bald, was now covered with thick and strong hair. I am now fifty years of age, and could scarcely have expected, that after having worn a wig for five and twenty years of my life, I should now be enabled to throw it away, and to be able to add my testimony to yourselves and the public, to add my testimony to the virtues of your truly valuable Oil, and you have my full permission to make this letter public, and to insert any one or more proof of the truth of this most valuable discovery.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,
W. C. PRIDEAUX.

Livingstone, Mary, W. Esq.,
Extract of a letter directed to Mr. O'Connell, Mercantile of London, from a friend at Naples, dated May 6, 1827.

I must turn your attention to the following—Captain Macassar, the 4th Regiment of Line, in the service of His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of Austria, aged 41 years, has been bald ever since the age of 18. He was recommended to try "Rowland's Macassar Oil," by a Gentleman who had already experienced its good effects; he bought one of the last quantity I received from England, and persevered in applying it—In less than two months his hair grew on the bald part, and is now very thick. The Captain is highly pleased and has applied to me to send for the particulars, which you are at liberty to make known as you may think proper. Rather more than twelve months since I made trial of the Oil, though I confess with not much faith, as I had been told, exploring years. I was next three months before any effect was perceptible; when a slight down appeared; at the expiration of five months his hair had grown on the bald part full as much as on the rest. I had had the whole of my head regularly shaved once a week for a considerable period, constantly using the Oil, night and morning; the result, that I have this day discarded my wig, my hair being quite restored and as strong and great in quantity as when I was twenty years of age.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,
