VICTORIA.

Beacon Hill Park.—Overlooking Straits of San Juan de Fuca, commands a view of surpassing beauty and grandeur. The park is a popular resort of the people of Victoria and games of all kinds are constantly going on there in the daytime. Nature and art have combined in making it one of the loveliest parks on the Pacific coast.

Clover Point.—A short distance east of Beacon Hill.

Fowl Bay—Is a charming spot, and the drive there is delightful.

Gorge—The beauty of the scenery surrounding the Gorge is exquisite, and a drive there will well repay the pleasure seeker. A most enjoyable way of going there is by row-boat from Victoria harbor. It is the picnic camping ground of the residents of Victoria, and visitors to the city should not fail to see this beautiful spot.

Holland Point—Commands a fine view of the Straits and entrance to the harbor.

Old Cemetery—Quadra street. Now never used, but well worth a visit by strangers.

Ross Bay—Where the new cemetery is, will amply repay visiting, as the drive is a charming one.

Carey Castle—Residence of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Dunsmuir Castle—Erected by the late Hon. Robert Dunsmuir, with its beautiful grounds, is the finest residence in Victoria, and cost over half a million dollars.

Provincial Museum.—Government Buildings, contains a most interesting collection of minerals, fossils, Indian curios, specimens of natural history, &c., &c., which should be seen by all visitors.

Victoria Gardens—A pleasure resort on the Gorge road.

Cordova Bay }
Oak Bay } Are beautiful drives for visitors to take.
Cadboro Bay }

Mount Tolmie Park—Probably the finest view of Victoria and surrounding country can be had from the top of Mount Tolmie, and the drive there is a delightful one.

Rock Bay—On the road to Esquimalt.

Esquimalt—No visitor should fail to pay a visit to the British naval station, where the Dominion Government have built an immense dry-dock, 400 feet in length, 26 in depth, and 90 wide at the entrance. There are always several men-of-war lying in the Esquimalt harbor, and visitors are not only allowed on board, but every attention paid to them in showing them over the ships. It can be reached in fifteen minutes by tram car, but the drive by hack will also be found most enjoyable.
