

the Pastor and Members of Granville Street Chapel for the use of that building on last evening.—(Passed unanimously.)

Brother Henry Mundell offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the arduous duties performed by the acting G. Scribe during this Session, be taken into favourable consideration, and that a sum be voted to remunerate him for his valuable services, say £2 10s 0d,—(Passed unanimously.)

On motion voted that a sufficient number of the Odes and responses of the Grand Division be printed on cards for the use of its members.

After Prayer by the Grand Chaplain, the Rev. P.J. Filleul, the Grand Division adjourned to meet in Digby in the last week in July next.

In Love Purity and Fidelity,
ALEXR. HITCHBORN,
G. S. pro. tem.

BY-LAWS OF GRAND DIVISION.

Article 1. Any Grand officer being absent from any meeting, the G. W. P. or other presiding officer, shall appoint, in open meeting, some one to occupy the place of that absent officer, pro tempore.

Art. 2. The presiding officer in any meeting of the Grand Division shall have no vote while in the chair, except in case of a tie, or of an election by ballot, or when the yeas or nays are called.

Art. 3. The G. W. P. when making official visits to Subordinate Divisions, shall cause his intention to be announced; he shall enter clothed in his proper regalia, and shall be received in accordance with the established rules and usages of the Order.

Art. 4. Such delegate or delegates as may have organized or visited any Subordinate Division, shall report his or their proceedings in writing, to the Grand Division, as soon thereafter as possible; and every such report shall be disposed of by the Grand Division according to the merits of the case, and its own pleasure.

Art. 5. Until otherwise ordered by proper authority, the blank left in the Constitution on the sum required for the privilege of proposing, electing and initiating a person on the same evening, who is known to be worthy, shall be one shilling and three pence in addition to the fee otherwise required.

Art. 6. All sums of money directed to be paid by vote of the Grand Division, shall be drawn from the Treasury by a draft on the G. T. signed by the G. W. P. and G. S., which draft held by him, the said G. T., shall always be a sufficient voucher for the payment made.

Art. 7. All petitions, complaints and appeals, from any person or persons, except verbal appeals from the decision of the presiding officer, on points of order, shall be presented in writing to the Grand Division, and shall be preserved on file, and not recorded in full on the records of the Grand Division, unless by special order on the subject.

Art. 8. At every meeting of the Grand Division, the G. S. shall make minutes of all the proceedings, on loose paper, or in a minute book, and at each meeting, the minutes of the last preceeding session shall be read, corrected if needful, and approved; after which approval and not before, they shall be made a matter of record in the Book of Records by the G. S.

Art. 9. The regalia and emblems appointed for the Grand Officers of the G. D. shall be purchased from time to time as occasion may require, and owned by the G. D., but every other member of the G. D. shall procure his own appointed clothing as a Son of Temperance, and without being properly clothed according to the established regulations of the Order, no brother shall take part in the business of the Division.

Art. 10. The G. D. shall give notice to the parties of all complaints and appeals to be tried before it, and shall allow all parties to be heard personally, or by writing, or by any member of the G. D. acting as counsel, as the G. D. may deem most conducive to equity, and the interests of the Order.

Art. 11. Any representative who shall cease
