

PUZZLE COLUMN.

1. Prefixes to be supplied :—
What mouse is noted for generous fame ?

What mouse is shy, and hides his very name ?

What other mouse is always just the very same ?

2. Transposition :—

A word of four letters :

A kind of tough wood used in Eastern Countries.

To receive in possession.

A girl's name.

3. One of the common useful metals.

The name of a country in Africa.

The act of distributing, also a kind of wood in common use in Great Britain.

To burthen, to fill up a small valley.

SQUARE WORD PUZZLE.

4. Read me across, or read me down.

Four words you'll find, one not well known.

My first is bad, my second worse,

My third the Russians proudly nurse.

My fourth the Russians fear and dread,

And oft I fear knock on the head.

5 PREFIXES TO BE FOUND.

Two things that I devour :

1st. A small green field, a kind of drink made of honey in the time of the Britons.

2nd. First a cross and then a heart.

6 Two things that you devour:

1st. First an axe and then a coin.

2nd, First a cross and then a ten.

A word of five letters.

To improve knowledge.

To act with dishonesty.

7. TRANSPOSITIONS.

A word of five letters.

An article of household furniture.

The cry of a domestic animal.

8 A word of five letters.

Signifying royalty.

A animal common in Germany.

APOLOGY FOR ERRORS.

In looking over our columns, we have discovered certain typographical errors, for which we blush. However, our excuse must be lack of experience in the art typographic. No doubt the next issue will be much better in appearance than this, and we trust that our readers will make allowance for the imperfections of this number.

Answers are requested to the puzzles, &c., given each month, and we shall be glad to receive original puzzles or problems from any one interested in such matters.

The names of those who send in successful answers will be published.

PROBABILITIES.—A warm reception to the "Rockwood Review."