

NOW READY.

PAUL: A Herald of the Cross.

BY MRS. FLORENCE M. KINGSLEY.

Author of "Titus" and "Stephen."

PRICE, - - PAPER, 50 Cents; CLOTH, - - $1.00.

The story represents the extension of Christianity among the Gentiles through the appointed herald of the "glad tidings." It is not a novel in the ordinary sense of the word, but in a series of dramatic scenes introduces the prominent characters with whom the Apostle had to do in the Acts, with ample and accurate historical accessories. The author's power of vivid and picturesque narrative makes us familiar with the varied life of the Empire in Rome, in Antioch, in Ephesus, in Athens, in Jerusalem. We gain a clear impression of the Cæsars, of Agrippa, of Antipas, of Felix; of the different fellow-labourers of Paul, Barnabas, Luke, Titus; of the Apostles Peter and James. The distinction between the Church at Jerusalem and the Christianity that was preached to the Gentiles is finely presented. The great darkness and need of the pagan world is powerfully contrasted with the light and fulness of the new faith. The most conspicuous events in the famous missionary journeys are thrillingly developed. We face death with Paul at Lystra and at Ephesus; sit with him at his tent-making in Corinth; stand beside him on Mars Hill; confront the mob with him at Jerusalem; go with him to shipwreck, imprisonment and death. The book follows closely the order of events in the inspired narrative, and invariably adds new light and interest to the record. It will appear quite opportunely in March, since the International Sunday-school Lessons take up the study of Paul at that time, covering his entire history within the year 1897.

A BOOK OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO STUDENTS OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL LESSONS IN 1897.

STEPHEN: A Soldier of the Cross.

BY FLORENCE M. KINGSLEY,

Author of "Titus: A Comrade of the Cross."

IN PAPER COVERS, 50 CENTS. IN CLOTH BOARDS, 75 CENTS.

In a review of this thrilling story, Dr. Withrow wrote: "Its hero is the first martyr of the Christian faith. It brings into contrast with the holy Stephen the persecuting Saul, who thought verily he ought to do many things against the Jesus of Nazareth. The due exercise of the historic imagination will often give a truer picture of the times than the cold page of history itself. This book will have special value to Sunday-school teachers and scholars, from the fact that the lessons for 1897 are upon that Church of the first century, whose period of persecution is here described.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, - WESLEY BUILDINGS, - TORONTO, ONT.
C. W. COATES, Montreal. S. F. HUESTIS, Halifax.

WE PAY POSTAGE