Diane of Ve Marie

A Romance of French Canada.
By Blanche L. Macdonell.
Paper 50c.; Cloth, $1.25.

A new, strong, brilliant, Canadian historical novel, and a splendid addition to Canadian literature, vividly descriptive of the highly picturesque life of the French colony in Frontenac's time. The literary style is exquisite, the character drawing particularly clever and good, the conversations piquant and charming. It is decidedly one of the best stories yet written by a Canadian pen.

Trevelyan's Little Daughters

By Fina Sheard. With illustrations by Reginald B. Birch.
Cloth, $1.00.

This is a charming story of three delightfully quaint English children who leave their pretty home in Cornwall to live with relatives in New York. Their doings and sayings and the romantic discovery of their Italian cousin Raphael makes a very pretty, readable story.

Domitia

By S. Baring Gould. Fully illustrated by Izora C. Chandler.
Paper, net, 60c.; Cloth, $1.25.

One of the most powerful novels issued since Quo Vadis. It deals with early Roman life, and is a thrilling picture of those turbulent times, as well as an interesting romance.
