ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO.

ST. MARY'S.

On Tuesday, the 24th inst., the wedding of Mr. P. McManus to Miss Mary Carrey, youngest daughter of Michael Carrey, was solemnized, Rev. Father William McCann officiating.

CHURCH OF THE SACRED HEART.

A new organ has recently been placed in this church, built by Messrs. Broekel & Mathews of 101 Eather street, this city, and is pronounced by experts to be a very superior instrument, both as regards tone and finish. It certainly will be a decided acquisition to the church.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

An old resident and member of this parish, Mrs. Nancy B. Gallagher, of 263 Victoria street, passed away on the 20th instant and was buried on Friday, the 27th.

On Thursday, the 30th, there also died Dolores Ann Ryan, wife of Michael J. Ryan, of 80 Bond street, who was buried on Sunday afternoon. May their souls rest in peace.

ST. HELEN'S.

There was a Requiem High Mass Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock for the repose of the soul of the late Archbishop Walsh.

Yesterday (Wednesday) the Sanatory boys held their annual excursion to Niagara Falls.

ST. PETER'S.

All the pupils of this school who went up to the recent entrance examination passed. This is particularly creditable owing to the fact that their teacher had four other divisions under her charge during their preparation. They will have a picnic to Mount Park to-day (Thursday) and it goes without saying they will enjoy themselves as they only can who work while they work, and for their success shows that to have done.

ST. BASIL'S.

On Wednesday, the 26th instant, at ten o'clock, the wedding of Mr. James E. Day, barrister, of Clough, and formerly a member of the law firm of Rowe & Day, of this city, to Miss Amy Higgins, daughter of Mr. W. H. Higgins, Inspector of Division Courts for the Province, was solemnized in this church. Miss Nellie Higgins, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Rev. Father John Lindsay, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of cream Irish poplin with train and veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid's dress was of pink silk. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 183 Huron street, a large number of relatives and friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Day will start on the day for a tour through Western Ontario.

We regret to announce the death on Friday, the 27th instant, at St. Michael's Hospital, of an old and highly respected member of the parish in the person of Mr. D. A. Moloney, of 132 Yorkville avenue. Mr. Moloney had been suffering for some considerable time, and his death had not been wholly unexpected. His funeral took place at 8.30 o'clock on Monday morning, and was largely attended. May his soul rest in peace.

C. M. E. A.

The result of the Eucher League between the different branches of the O.M.B.A. in Toronto was a tie for first place between St. Michael's Branch, No. 85, and St. Helen's, No. 111. The tie was played off on last Monday evening, there being twelve players to represent each side. The contest was very keen, every member being anxious to do his share towards winning the first prize for his branch. On totalling up the points at the end of the game the judges found that St. Michael's had won the championship by a narrow margin. The contest attracted a large number of prominent members from other branches, who thoroughly enjoyed the evening's entertainment. After the games were over, refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed with three cheers for the victorious Branch No. 85, who become the possessors of a handsome trophy in the shape of a C. M. E. A. beizer.

CONDOLENCES.

At the last regular meeting of St. Anthony's Commandery, No. 122, Knights of St. John, held July 22 it was moved by Sir Knight Vincent W. McCarthy, seconded by Sir Knight Frank Hallman, that a resolution of condolence be tendered to Sir Knight M. J. McGinn upon the death of his nephew, Charles McGinn, who was fatally injured at the Canada Foundry Company's foundry on Wednesday, July 18th, and of which injuries he died on Thursday, July 10th. May the Lord have mercy on his soul.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

Sunday was the first day in several weeks that there were no calls of marriage. On some of the past Sundays there was as many as two and three calls the same day. It was announced at the two Masses on Sunday that a Requiem for the repose of the soul of the late Archbishop Walsh would be sung in the Cathedral at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning, at which the people were invited to be present. The people of St. Joseph's have still a soft place in their hearts for the late Archbishop Walsh and it is certain that many of them will be present to join in the offering made for his soul.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Rev. Father Dowdall, of Eganville, had a big storm last week. He says that it was the best of them all. The anniversary of St. Anne was observed in the Catholic Church in Peoria, on Tuesday. Bishop McEray, of London, celebrated High Mass.

Alexander Kennedy died at Cornwall on Wednesday last week, aged 93 years. He was unmarried. The funeral took place at St. Andrew's. Father Donald McDonald of the Redemptionist Order, who has just completed his ecclesiastical course at St. Louis Mo., will sing his first Mass on Sunday at St. Andrew's church, Harrison's Corners.

The celebration of the golden jubilee of the foundation of the congregation of St. Anne's was the climax of the convent at Lechin with great pomp. The pontifical high mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Harkins, bishop of Providence, R.I., and a friend of the Community Archbishop Brocheis.

D. J. McDonald and Miss Annie Marren, daughter of the late Mr. Donald, Bonville, were married by Rev. Father McDonald at St. Andrew's church, Cornwall, on July 10. The groomsmen was W. D. McDonald, while Miss Florence Marren was bridesmaid. The happy couple went to Montreal and Ottawa on their honeymoon.

At Campbellford, the wedding took place of Miss Margaret McCarthy, of that village to Mr. Thomas McDonough, the popular clerk of the Oriental hotel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McCloskey. Miss May McCarthy, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Rev. Father Conway and the committee are to be congratulated on the success of the event.

A big picnic in aid of the new Catholic church at Havelock was held in that village. There was an immense crowd in attendance, fully 2,000 people all the district round being represented. An excellent programme of sports was run off, and there was an abundance of entertainment. A Peterborough orchestra furnished music for dancing. Rev. Father Conway and the committee are to be congratulated on the success of the event.

ST. CECELIA'S.

(TORONTO JUNCTION.)

Mr. Bernard McInerney, a very old member of this congregation, passed away on Sunday at the ripe age of 85 years. His funeral which was largely attended, took place on Tuesday morning, at nine o'clock, to St. Cecilia's church, and thence to St. Michael's cemetery. May his soul rest in peace.

A partial scholarship for "highest standing," with first-class honors, junior examination, theory, by Miss Madeline Oxill, of Toronto.

The Pope Knows.

The friend of Gen. Grant once told an incident of Grant's visit to Rome, which shows the interest taken by the Pope in the great American hero. "I was present at the Vatican," the Pope said: "I was especially to thank you for the religious privileges which you granted to Catholic soldiers in your army." The general considered for a moment, and could not recall any special privileges bestowed upon Catholics. Perceiving this, the Pope said: "I refer to the fact that before every battle you kindly notified the officers to allow the Catholic soldiers an opportunity to make their confession. With this small distress Grant replied: "I did that as a military measure, because my soldiers fought better when they felt that their conscience was clear. But I had no idea that your holiness was aware of the custom." "Ah, my friend," replied the Pope, "there is nothing which affects my children in any part of the world which is not known to me, and every such benefit is cordially remembered."

Inflammatory Rheumatism.—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil for inflammatory rheumatism and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without excruciating and every movement caused excruciating pain. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others; as it did so much for me."

CHAMPLAIN SUMMER SCHOOL.

PROGRAMME OF FOURTH WEEK.

(Special to THE REGISTER.) CLIFF HAVEN, N.Y. July 28th, 1900.

The most notable feature of the fourth week at Cliff Haven was the decided increase in attendance at the lectures and classes. The number of courses provided for this year makes it necessary for each student to elect only those most adapted to his needs, and consequently there are few on the grounds who are not availing themselves of the privilege of one or more lines of work.

The study-classes in Shakespeare, Dante and Logic are conducted informally for the most part, the instructors dealing such methods as more productive of good results. The two former classes have been during the past week under the new instructors scheduled for the second fortnightly period. In Shakespeare, Alexis I. Dupont Coleman, A.B., of New York, again interested large numbers of the students at Cliff Haven. The drama under consideration was Julius Caesar, and in the analysis of it, Mr. Coleman most ably developed those points which lead to a clear understanding of the essential nature of this great tragedy.

Mr. Coleman is an old and favorite lecturer at Cliff Haven, having talked on topics from French history during the seasons of 1895 and 1899. Judging from the attendance at, and the interest manifested in his class, it may be unobscurely pronounced as one of the most satisfactory and profitable courses yet instituted.

The instructor in Dante, Dr. Rev. Mgr. Loughlin, of Philadelphia, the vice-president of the school, scarcely needs further introduction. Mgr. Loughlin has been an earnest student of Dante for several years past, and he has so fully worked himself into the spirit of this great epic, that he can quite easily transmit his feelings to the members of his class. Consequently the class work in Dante is proving a great attraction, but to those who were so fortunate as to follow the able lectures of Dr. Mahony on the Inferno and to those who were at the same time, the weekly course of lectures scheduled for half past ten o'clock is still week being delivered by Rev. William Livingston, of Newburgh, formerly a professor in the Troy seminary.

Professor Livingston is likewise an old friend of the school, having been present at many sessions and having lectured during the summer of 1893. Those students who have had the pleasure during the past winter of attending the Summer School classes instituted in New York, have had occasion to know that Professor Livingston's power and skill as a lecturer. The present course, which is entitled "Constantine the Great and His Times," reveals not only a deep and thorough knowledge of historical details on the part of Father Livingston, but also undoubted skill in the differentiation and generalization of those facts, and a critical and impartial mind that is able to see events in their true relationship.

The evening lectures on Monday and Tuesday evenings by Prof. Hiram O. Bristol, of Brooklyn, were illustrated by a splendid collection of stereopticon views, which for accuracy in detail and beauty in effects were quite above those ordinarily seen. The lectures themselves, one on "The Sunset Land" and the other on "The Lay of the Last Minstrel," though different in many ways, were equally enjoyable, abounding as they did with many brilliant pen-pictures and pleasant anecdotes.

The fourth course of lectures by Rev. M. W. Holland of Port Henry, on Thursday and Friday evenings had for their subjects, "Catholic Education in the United States," and "The History of the Church in New York State." For wealth of information and originality in material these lectures were especially noteworthy and valuable. By next week, it is fully expected, the attendance at Cliff Haven will pretty nearly reach the Sutor's limit of accommodation. Every boat and train bring in crowds of people eager to participate in the various pleasures afforded by Summer School life. Despite the strengthening in the intellectual life of the school, the recreation program is still as attractive as ever. Each afternoon groups of students cluster around the lake shore or up in the bluff, watching the bathers or, as it often occurs, the aquatic sports. Elsewhere, crowds of the members, young and old, watch with deepest interest in the progress of a ball game at the tennis courts. In the evenings, if no entertainment be announced, various cottages hold open houses and cordially welcome all passers-by. The abundance of talk present on the grounds precludes all possibility of an idle moment, and consequently music generally resounds upon the evening air. Imbued as everyone is, with a feeling of friendship and kinship to all new comers, it is quite natural that many of the Catholic people of the East should at this time be turning their faces toward their summer homes at Cliff Haven.

Hibernians at Kingston.

The Provincial Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians commenced in the hall of Division No. 1, Kingston. After the delegates returned from attending High Mass, in St. Mary's Cathedral, which was celebrated by the Rev. Father Mea, Rev. Father Kehoe, pastor of the Cathedral addressed the delegates. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Order opened their sessions in the Catholic Foresters hall at the same time. The Hibernians of the city introduced the proceeding by presenting an address of welcome to the ladies and gentlemen who compose the delegates to the convention, and gave them a "Caelo Millo Falithe" to Kingston.

At eleven o'clock the delegates were addressed by His Worship Mayor Minnes and given a cordial welcome to the historic city on behalf of the citizens. His genial remarks were received with enthusiastic cheers from the delegates and the local Hibernians, Ex-Mayor Ryan followed with a happy address. Provincial President Duffy made a pleasant reply, thanking His Worship for his kind sentiments and expressions of good will toward the A.O.H. Miss M. O. Kelly, Provincial President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, returned thanks on behalf of the lady delegates.

In the evening the grand officers of the Order delivered addresses in the Y.O.B.A. hall at a joint meeting of the two associations, at which there was a large attendance.

The grand officers of the Provincial A.O.H. are: President, George Duffy; Vice-President, P. J. Handley, Secretary, H. McCaffrey; Treasurer, John McCarthy. Provincial Ladies Auxiliary officers: President, Mrs. M. O. Kelly; Vice-President, Miss K. Quirk; Secretary, Mrs. M. Fahy; Treasurer, Miss M. Rahally. Steps are being taken to form a Ladies Auxiliary of the A.O.H. in Kingston.

SIGNALS OF DANGER.—Have you lost your appetite? Have you a constant longing for food? Have you an unpleasant taste in the mouth? Does your head ache and have you dizziness? If so, your stomach is out of order and you need medicine. But you do not like medicine.
