THE overwhelming demand for this class of Art Publication last season, has induced Messrs. Raphael Tuck & Sons to devote special attention to its production this year, and the result appears in a large number of Wall and Book Calendars. The unique designs and superb coloring of these combine to produce a line which cannot be excelled for beauty and cultured taste. The most brilliant poetical gems have been set in a wealth of refined and chaste colors, giving a delightful union of the beautiful in thought and scene.

Our travellers will wait on you in a short time with these splendid samples.
