the firm's other lines will be promptly attended to at the office and warehouse, St. Peter street, Montreal.

A NOTABLE RANGE.

The trade will find variety and attractiveness in the large range of exercise books and scribblers which have been prepared this season by the Copp, Clark co., Ltd. The greatest pains have been taken to please the taste of every class of buyer in the designs which decorate the covers. The school pupils have to be catered to as well as other people, and the whole range, which is now going out by the travelers, will be found to come up to all requirements. The Copp, Clark Co. have added several new lines this season to their already extensive list, and these include the Lilyland, the Buttercupland, the Corncob scribbler, the Hollyland, the Dandelion, the Crysanthemum, Cherry Ripe, the Strawberry, the Honeysuckle scribbler, etc. The colors used on the covers are gold on red, brown on green and yellow, purple, etc. They are shown in colored Bristol board, in coated box board, etc., and the delicate coloring and pretty floral designs make up a fine range. The exercise books are ruled or plain. From the many varieties shown and the high standard of excellence reached, the trade will appreciate the enterprise of the firm.

NOTE BOOKS FOR BICYCLISTS.

Buntin, Gillies & Co., Hamilton, are offering the trade a neat assortment of a new memorandum book, called "Wheeling Notes." As the name suggests, this book is for the bicyclists, the pages being ruled and printed to contain a record of all items of interest of journeyings awheel. Every stationer should have a small stock of these seasonable goods. They retail at 25, 50 and 75c.

MOVING UP TOWN.

A noteworthy addition to the many attractive stores which now tempt the shoppers on St. Catherine street west, Montreal, is the one lately opened on the south side of the thoroughfare between McGill College avenue and Victoria street by G. W. Clarke & Co., the fancy goods dealers, who, for nearly 20 years, had one of the leading stores of the kind on St. James street. The new store will be opened out in full during the coming fall months, with the usual extensive array of holiday goods.

EXAMINATION PAPER.

The departmental examinations will be over before our next issue. Have you secured the order for the necessary stationery? If not, look after it at once. Buntin, Gillies & Co., Hamilton, have a large stock of the paper correctly ruled, as specified by the Department of Education.

NEW BAG COMPANY.

The Beaver Bag Co., Ltd., has been incorporated at Montreal with $100,000

No. 6-Quick Index.

capital. The members of the company are: E. K. Green, Jr., J. L. Galletti, Charles Cushing, John Edgar, and Ebeen McAdam. The company is entitled to carry on "in all its branches the business of manufacturing and dealing in bags of every description; the manufacture of, calendering and dealing in jute, cotton, cloths, twines and all products thereof; the printing, stamping, and otherwise completing the same; the acquiring and disposing of any and all patent rights in connection therewith.

No. 7-Mimeograph.

AN EFFECTIVE "AD."

The Rolland Paper Co. took advantage of the election campaign now raging at its hottest to secure a novel ad. for their "Superfine Linen Record" account book paper, and folders of the paper with a lot of campaign facts on the Conservative side, of course, have been circulated at all the rallies in Montreal, Hamilton, Toronto, Loneon and elsewhere. They close with the legend that, but for the N.P., this high grade of paper would not have been manufactured in Canada.

No. 8-Wallet.

FINE WEDDING STATIONERY.

For the wedding season the stationery being shown the trade by the Barber & Ellis Co. deserves more than a word of strong praise. It is got up in boxes with as much taste and attention to every detail of finish as exhibited in the imported stock. The paper is of fine grade, and the envelopes are made after the latest modes now in fashion. The lines are shown in cream and white papers. They are selling well, and the prices are away down. A feature in these lines of stationery which will greatly recommend them to lithographers is that the paper and envelopes may be obtained by ream and the 1,000, and the name of the lithographer name of the lithographer embossed by the makers. The paper is put up in in five quire boxes. For high-class wedding stationery these lines deserve every commendation as a product of Canadian skill and excellence in papermaking. The firm propose to offer a cheaper grade made in the same fashion as those now shown.

PAPER NAPKINS FOR PICNICS.

A nice trade can be done in Japanese paper napkins for picnics. They are cheap, very light, and would make an effective advertisement if neatly printed. Those in need will find a full range at Buntin, Gillies & Co.'s, Hamilton.

WRITING TABLETS.

The Barber & Ellis Co. are showing some superior goods in writing tablets. The covers are adorned by original designs done by home artists, and are handsomely executed. The lines shown in clude the Hercules Bond, Superior Linen Record, Standard Pure Linen, etc., and comprise a number of good sellers in the stationery trade.

The Barber & Ellis Co. are also offering a good line of typewriter paper, which is put up in convenient ream packages. A neat little sample book of the papers used has been issued, and may be obtained on inquiry.

GLASSWARE AND CHINA.

Nerlich & Co. are showing a complete range in cut glassware and china. In china the range includes cups and saucers, berry sets, butter coolers, etc., and in tea sets the firm claim to be showing the cheapest in the market, comprising 44 pieces and retailing at very low prices. The cut glass articles are of fine quality and include flower vases, bowls, jugs,