

within the last few days, have added to their previous tokens of love by presenting her with the handsome china tea service which she has just received.

And now, brethren, I commend you to that God who alone can give a blessing to the labors of his ministering servants, and I pray that my feeble efforts to promote His glory and your spiritual good may not return to him void, but that they may accomplish that wherunto they were designed, and that at last we shall together meet before the throne, and through eternity, without risk of separation, worship Him who gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity and purify us unto Himself as a peculiar people zealous of good works.

I am, my dear brethren,

Your sincere friend and brother in Christ,

JOHN FLETCHER.

The Churchwardens and Members
Of St. Jude's Church, Oakville.

On Sunday, May 9th, the teachers of St. Jude's Church Sunday School presented Mr. Fletcher with Cowycare's Life and Epistles of St. Paul and Leathes' Boyle Lectures for 1868, as a parting token of love and esteem.
