HOLY WEEK AND EASTER.

The attendance at the services in Holy Week was larger than usual. Many communicants availed themselves of the daily celebrations of the Holy Communion at 8 a.m. On Good Friday, the congregation was very large in the morning, the sermon being preached by the Bishop of Algoma. Mr. Moore preached in the evening. In the afternoon the Rector conducted what is known as the Three Hours Service, consisting mainly of addresses on the Seven Saying from the Cross. The first service of the Easter Festival was held on Easter even at 8 p.m.—a bright choral evensong with a full choir. The chancel presented a beautiful appearance, with the bright, fresh flowers in pulpit, desks, and sanctuary. There was a fair congregation, and no doubt many were kept away by the rain. The communicants on Easter day numbered 325, a larger number than on any previous occasion. It was a happy thought that suggested a celebration at 7 a.m. as well as at 8 o'clock. The numbers were divided, so that no service was too long. Commander Pocock, R.N., ordained to the perpetual Diaconate, kindly assisted at both the early Communion. Of the sixty-seven communicants at 7 a.m., many were receiving for the first time, having been brought in by the work in the Mission hall. The Church was quite full at both morning and evening services. The services were bright and hearty and the music excellent. At the children's service, 150 mission boxes were brought by the children and presented, completely covering the altar. They contained $85.

The church was very tastefully decorated, many of the flowers in pots having been lent by kind friends, while the offerings sent in for the purchase of flowers more than met the cost—$60.

The offertory of Easter Day, exclusive of the 7 A. M. and afternoon services, amounted to $166.12.

EASTER VESTRY MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of the Vestry was held on Easter Monday, 26th April. the Rector in the chair and about thirty persons present.

The Churchwardens presented their Report which, with the accompanying accounts, is printed in full in our columns. The accounts were discussed at some length, and stand for further consideration until the adjourned meeting to be held on Monday 10th inst.

On the nomination of Mr. Henderson seconded by Mr. Harman, Mr. Chadwick was appointed one of the Churchwardens for the ensuing year by acclamation. The Rector thereupon appointed Mr. H. W. M. Murray to be the other Church-
