What P.S. Inspectors Say of the "Excelsior" Series of Wall Maps:

They are clear, the colors good, the execution very creditable, and the information correct. There is no crowding with details, and yet the information is ample for all purposes.—REV. THOS. MCKEE, M.A., I.P.S., South Simcoe.

I am greatly pleased with the maps. They possess every feature to be desired in school maps.—FRED. BURROWS, I.P.S., Lennox and Addington.

MAPS AND MAP CASES.

The "Excelsior" Series is no misnomer, as they possess all the qualifications of excellent school maps—cleanliness of outline, accuracy of information, and a freedom from a superfluous mass of matter which tends to obscure rather than to instruct. I shall recommend it for use everywhere.—F. L. MICHELL, M.A., P.S.I., Lanark.

The map is excellent; the mode of hanging the best I have seen; the case enclosing the map to preserve it is a boon to trustees, for with such an arrangement maps will last many years longer. Economy, excellence and convenience are so combined that the "Excelsior" Maps should sell at sight where skill is appreciated.—J. S. CARSON, I.P.S., West Middlesex.
