Quips and Cranks.

What Jack has a reputation for dishonesty? Jack Daw (jackdaw).

Good name for an Irishman travelling incognito—The O'Dono-who.

"Do you think Wagner's theory of music is sound, professor?" "Yes—too much."

What piece of tableware is like a peasant girl carrying eggs to market? An egg-glass (egg lass).

French translation of an old play called "Love's Last Shift."—"La dernière Chemise de l'Amour."

What animal is most like the blacksmith that has just moved into town? A gnu, sure (a new shoer).

Mr. Lang proposes that we should tax literature. That should be of advantage to the exchequer, as writers are fond of "rating" each other.

Sir Edwin: Shall we take the highroad home, dear—I mean Lady Angelina? Lady Angelina: No; I should prefer the bridal path, I think.

Little Girl: Mamma says I must study grammar this term. Little Boy: Wot's that for? "That's so I can laugh w'en folks make mistakes."

The Duke of Orleans says he will risk his head to restore the monarchy in France. That's another proof of his meanness. Why don't he risk something valuable?

"They say it's electricity," said Pat, as he stopped before the incandescent street light, "but I'll be hanged if I see how it is they make the hairpin burn in the bottle."

Stern parent: It is no easy matter, you know, to keep a wife in these days. Fond Lover: But your daughter, sir, is not the sort of girl to run away from her husband.

"Has my boy been a little defender of and kind to dumb animals to-day?" "Yes, grand-ma. I let your canary out of the cage, and when my cat caught it I set Towser on her."

She had been longing for a new dress. At last the extra money was saved, and she bought it. "It's off my mind now," she exclaimed, "and which pleases me more, it's on my body."

Stillingfleet: What would you do with a tailor who never has your trousers done at the time he has contracted to deliver them? Wienbiddle: Sue him for breeches of promise.

Clerk: I am to be married shortly. Couldn't you manage to increase my salary a little? Employer: Couldn't really. But I'll tell you what I'll do for you, my boy. I'll shorten your hours during the first three months so that you can spend your evenings at home, and after that I'll lengthen them again, so that you will have an excuse to get away.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.,
18th August, 1894.

To whom it may concern—and that is nearly everybody.—This is to certify that I have used Coutts & Sons' "Acetocura" on myself, my family and hundreds of others during the past fifteen years for headache, toothache, rheumatism, sciatica, sprains, cuts, boils, abscesses, scarlet fever, chills and fever, and also with good success on myself (as I was able) in an attack of yellow fever. I can hardly mention all the ills I have known its almost magical power in curing, such as croup, diarrhoea, biliousness, and even those little but sore pests to many people—corns. The trouble is with patients, they are so fond of applying where the pain is—and not where directed, at the nerve affected. And the trouble with the druggists is that they also want to sell "Something just as good," which very often is worse than useless.

Wishing you every success in your new establishment, and that a more enlightened public may appreciate the blessings of your Acetocura, is the fervent wish of Yours truly,

CAPT. W. M. SOMERVILLE.
