DON'T BE DUPED

There have lately been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of "Webster's Dictionary." They are being offered at a low price

By

dry goods dealers, grocers, clothiers, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers.

Announcements of these comparatively

Worthless

reprints are very misleading; for instance, they are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of "an eight to twelve dollar book," when in reality from A to Z they are all

Reprint Dictionaries, phototype copies of a book of over forty years ago, which in its day was sold for about $5.00, and that book was much superior in paper, print, and binding to these imitations, and was then the best Dictionary of the time instead of being

Long Since Obsolete.

The supplement of 10,000 so-called "new words," which some of these books are advertised to contain, was compiled by a gentleman who has been dead over thirty years, and was published before his death. Other so-called additions are reprints of a like nature.

The Genuine Edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, which to-day is accepted as The Standard and The Best, contains over 2000 pages, with illustrations on nearly every page, and bears our imprint on the title page.
