

ROUTE SCHEDULE

Section I

The following route may be operated by the designated airline or airlines of Canada:

Points of Departure	Intermediate Points	Destinations in the Czech Republic	Points Beyond
Any point or points in Canada	Any point or points in Europe to be named by Canada	Prague, One other point in the Czech Republic to be named by Canada	Any point or points in Europe to be named by Canada

1. In the operation of an agreed service on a specified route set out in this Route Schedule, the airline or airlines designated by the Government of Canada shall have the following rights:
 - (a) to pick up and discharge in the territory of the Czech Republic international traffic in passengers, mail and cargo destined for or coming from Canada;
 - (b) to carry international traffic in passengers, mail and cargo between Canada and intermediate points;
 - (c) to carry into and out of the territory of the other Contracting Party on the same flight with stop-over privilege through-international traffic originating in or destined for points so specified in third countries.
2. Prague and the other point in the Czech Republic may be served on the same flight or separately.
3. Fifth freedom rights shall be available at up to four points of Canada's choice, intermediate to or beyond the Czech Republic.
4. Points to be named by Canada may be changed on 30 days notice.
5. The designated airline or airlines of Canada while operating an agreed service on a specified route may omit any or all intermediate or beyond points.
6. The designated airline or airlines of Canada shall have the right to block-space and code-share on the designated airline or airlines of the Czech Republic and/or third country carriers on services between Canada and the Czech Republic and on fifth freedom sectors. Any such block-space and code-share arrangement shall require prior notification to the aeronautical authorities of the Czech Republic. The block-space and code-share arrangement with third country carriers will not be available while a Canadian designated airline operates with its own equipment between Canada and the Czech Republic.
7. While the designated airline or airlines of Canada operate single track service with its own equipment to the second point in the Czech Republic, such service shall be subject to a mandatory commercial agreement with a designated airline of the Czech Republic.
