

Under the Unemployment Insurance Act, a Dominion Government employment service has been instituted with employment offices in all main centres across Canada.

Over six months' service, $33, under six months' service, $27 in winter, $17 in summer.

Transportation with travelling expenses provided to point of enlistment or to place of home like residence or time of enlistment, or to any other point in Canada that can be reached without additional expenditure.

Grant of 30 days' pay and dependent allowances to those with more than 183 days' continuous service.

Discharged persons who after insurance employment are recalled, after 13 weeks of such employment, claiming that they have been the victims of fraud, to be recalled with the time they spent in the armed forces since July 1, 1941, the date at which the Unemployment Insurance Act became effective, without the necessity of making contributions to the unemployment insurance fund for such period of service with the forces.

Benefits similar to unemployment insurance benefits are payable to discharged persons who are capable of employment, but for whom no work is available, for a period not exceeding their length of service, with a maximum of 18 months.

Benefits similar to those payable under the provisions for out-of-work benefits may be paid to discharged persons who are temporarily incapacitated.

Benefits similar to out-of-work benefits and subject to similar limitations may be paid to those engaged in farming or other business on their own account while awaiting re-employment from their enterprises.

A welfare division of the Department of Pensions and National Health has been established with welfare officers stationed at all main centres throughout the Dominion to assist former members of the forces in becoming re-established, and to advise them on legislation affecting discharged persons and also with respect to their individual problems throughout the Dominion.

Citizen's committees have been established in each county throughout the Dominion to co-operate with welfare officers in carrying discharged persons in their re-employment problems.