

countries and provide them with resources to conduct research into the problems of the developing regions of the world.

- Department of Finance The Government Finance Division provides information concerning the availability of loans to students under the Canada Student Loans Plan.
- Department of Indian and Northern Affairs The Northern Development Branch is responsible for the education of Indians, Eskimos, Métis and others in Northern Canada. The Branch operates schools in Arctic Quebec. The Education Branch of the Indian-Eskimo Affairs Program provides schooling for Indian children living within the provinces, from kindergarten through university. Facilities are provided in either federal or provincial schools.
- Department of Justice The Inmate Training Division of the Canadian Penitentiary Service is responsible for education and training of penitentiary inmates.
- Department of Manpower and Immigration Arrangements are made with provincial governments, private schools and industry itself for continuing adult training. Candidates are directed to the appropriate place of training through the Department's Canada Manpower Centres spread from coast to coast. The arrangements include language training for immigrants not acquainted with either English or French. In addition, the Department of Manpower and Immigration assists the provinces by providing funds for research and development into continuing adult education. In 1967 the federal-provincial agreements for the training of the unemployed under the Technical and Vocational Training Act of 1961 were allowed to expire and the Adult Occupational Training Act was passed, under which the Federal Government takes full responsibility for financing the cost of training adults who are or should be in the labour force. If, in the opinion of a manpower counsellor, it is in the best interest of the individual and of the economy for an adult to undertake training or re-training, it will be purchased by Federal Government from a public or private training institution or from industry.
- Department of National Defence The Directorate of Dependents' Education is responsible for the provision of education facilities for the dependants of Canadian Armed Forces personnel at overseas bases.
- Department of National Health and Welfare This Department has charge of all matters related to the promotion and preservation of the health, social security and social welfare of the people of Canada over which the Parliament of Canada has jurisdiction. Divisions of the Welfare Branch include Social Aid and Unemployment Assistance. The Civil Defence College at Arnprior is the principal civil defence training centre in Canada. The Department also provides research grants to institutions of higher education.
