

It is Mr. Clark's view that the NPT, which has already made a major contribution to non-proliferation, will continue to be a vital factor in strengthening international security and cooperation.