PRINTING AND STATIONERY

ADVANCES TO KING'S PRINTER FOR PURCHASE OF MATERIALS

Hon. PAUL MARTIN (Secretary of State) moved the second reading of bill No. 245, to amend the Department of Public Printing and Stationery Act.

Mr. GRAYDON: I suggest that the minister ought to give us a full explanation.

Mr. MARTIN: I did last night.

Mr. GRAYDON: I must have been out of the house at the time.

Mr. MARTIN: Yes; the hon. member was.

Mr. GRAYDON: Perhaps the minister would give us a summary.

Mr. MARTIN: The purpose of the bill is to increase advances to the king's printer. Some years before the war, the advance was $700,000. The auditor general has had to call the attention of the king's printer to the fact that he was spending an amount greater than that on hand. All we are doing is to put into legislative form something that is now provided for by order in council.

Mr. GRAYDON: I have no objection to second reading, but I shall have some questions to ask in committee.
