

Adjournment Debate

The reason why a 3 per cent warranty cost is imposed is, Mr. Speaker, that statutory expenses for CSLP have increased from 300 millions dollars, in 1985-1986 to 442 millions in 1990-1991.

When a student does not refund his loan to the financial institution according to the pre-conditions, it is the government that refunds the institution and takes charge of the grievance procedure with the students at fault. I do not know if my colleague knows how many they are and how they do that, but it is terrible.

Mr. Speaker, the commitment of the government to helping the postsecondary students remains as firm as it has been since the creation of this program, 27 years ago. Our government is also committed to reduce the national deficit.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. DeBlois): I am sorry to interrupt the hon. parliamentary secretary.

The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, the House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 24(1).

The House adjourned at 6.30 p.m.
