

4. What were the total hours televised publicly by the C.B.C. in Canada in relation to the Olympic Games in Mexico?
5. What revenues were derived by the C.B.C. in relation to coverage of the Olympic Games?
6. Was any attempt made to have any other T.V. service cover the Games for the C.B.C.?

No. 926—Mr. Douglas—December 2

1. In each of the latest ten years for which figures are available, how much was paid to farmers in subsidies and other forms of assistance by the federal government (a) in Canada, and (b) by provinces?
2. What was the gross income of farmers for those same ten years (a) in Canada, and (b) by provinces?
3. What was the total number of farmers for those same ten years (a) in Canada, and (b) by provinces?

No. 927—Mr. Douglas—December 2

1. Is a second television station for Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, currently under consideration?
2. If so, when will a decision be announced?

No. 928—Mr. Douglas—December 2

1. What is the total expenditure to the end of the last fiscal year on the South Saskatchewan River Dam and associated irrigation and power projects by (a) the federal government (b) the Saskatchewan Government.
2. What further expenditures, if any, are yet to be made on this project by the federal government?

No. 929—Mr. Muir (Cape Breton-The Sydneys)—December 2

1. What was the primary object of the Canadian Government group, that included members of the federal Cabinet, in making an extensive tour of various South and Central American countries recently?
2. How many persons comprised the official Canadian party and, of these, how many were elected government officials, departmental officials, others?
3. What was the total cost of the tour and what was the cost under the following headings: transportation, food and accommodation, official entertaining, and other?
4. How long did this tour last and what countries were visited?

No. 930—Mr. Muir (Cape Breton-The Sydneys)—December 2

1. (a) Does the federal government pay all or any part of the cost involved in transporting sick or injured Indians, residents of recognized reserves, to