

paid into the hands of the Clerk of the Senate, and that the Petition is accompanied by the documents referred to in Rule. 141, M, 827, 830.

110. The Petition after being read and received stands referred to the Standing Committee on Divorce to ascertain its regularity and sufficiency, and whether the rules have been substantially complied with; also for hearing and inquiry into the matters set forth in the Petition. R. 142. See B. c. XVII, 625.

Petition referred to Committee on Divorce.

BILL

111. After the adoption of the Report of the Committee upon the Petition; if said report recommends the granting of relief to the Petitioner the Bill is introduced and read a first time. The Senator in charge then moves, "That the said Bill be placed on the Order Paper to be read a second time on—(a future day)." And The Honourable the Speaker says: "Honourable Senators, it is moved by the Honourable....., seconded by....., that," and puts the question, "Is it your pleasure." R. 144.

After report, Bill introduced and ordered to second reading.
