

employed in any occupation involving any use of the oar or paddle, who rows for pleasure or recreation only, and during his leisure hours, and who does not abandon or neglect his usual business or occupation for the purpose of training for more than two weeks during a rowing season.

ARTICLE IV.

The Clubs forming this Association shall be represented at the Annual Meeting by two delegates from each Club, who shall elect a President, First and Second Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer, and an Executive Committee of nine, to whom shall be entrusted the management of the Association.

The officers above named shall be elected for a term of three years. The members of the Committee shall be elected for a like period, except in the first election, when three shall be chosen by lot to retire at the expiration of one year, three at the expiration of two years, and three at the expiration of three years, in order that three members of this Committee shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Association thereafter.

They shall have power at any regular meeting, by a two-thirds vote, to remove from office any officer or member of the Committee, who, by neglect of duty or by conduct tending to impair his usefulness as a member of such committee, shall be deemed to have forfeited his position; but no member shall be removed without there has been given him at least ten days' notice that charges have been preferred against him.