

"The Bible will be honest with you, and while it makes all admissions, on certain grounds, as to what differentiates you from other people who are dishonorable and dishonest and have broken vows outwardly it goes straight into the conscience and says, 'After all you are a sinner, you are smitten with an incurable disease which knows no remedy save the knowledge and experience of which come not from earth but straight and miraculously from heaven.'"

REV. JOHN MACNEIL.

And the Lord said unto Cain, where is Abel thy brother? And he said I know not: Am I my brother's keeper? And he said what hast thou done?—Genesis, IV: 9, 10.

"And apart from races we deem barbarous, is not the passion for dominion and wealth and power accountable for the worst chapters of cruelty and oppression written in the world's history? Few people—perhaps none—are free from this reproach. What indeed is true civilization? By its fruit you shall know it. It is not dominion, wealth, material luxury, nay, not even a great literature and education, widespread—good though these be. Civilization is not a veneer; it must penetrate to the very heart and core of societies of men. Its true signs are thought for the poor and suffering, chivalrous regard and respect for woman, the frank recognition of human brotherhood, irrespective of race or color or nation or religion, the love of ordered freedom, abhorrence of what is mean and cruel and vile; ceaseless devotion to the claims of justice. Civilization in that, its true, its highest sense, must make for peace."

SIR CHARLES RUSSELL,
