

In the fall of 1904, Mr. Wheaton entered Bates College, Lewiston, Maine. During his college course he supplied churches in various places in Maine, including Weld, Orr's Island, Sebago and Clifton.

Mr. Wheaton taught Latin in Wilson Memorial Academy, New York, 1908-1909. He was pastor of the Boothbay, Maine, Free Baptist Church 1909-1910.

He was ordained there, June 9th, 1910.

In September, 1910, he resigned the Boothbay pastorate to enter Newton Theological Seminary, where he is now a student.

037030002

094420009