presented at Sir James Whitney's Funeral.

Special to The Torento World.

GUELPH. Ont., Sept. 28.—The executive committee of the South Wellington Conservative Association has passed a resolution of condolence to Lady Whitney and will be represented at the funeral of Sir James P. Whitney. The resolution in part reads:
"We need not pronounce any panegyrle on our late leader. His life's work speaks for itself and will endure. His strong will, his wise counsels, his unblemished honesty of purpose, were the chief characteristics of the late Sir James Whitney, which have enabled men to say of him that his yea was yea and his nay was nay. His epitaph may well read: 'A wise statesman, an honest politician and a sterling friend.'" Lady Whitney and will be represented
