SPLENDID VICTORY WON

Heralds Downfall of Hapsburg Empire—Name Changed to Przemysl.

BY FREDERICK RENNETT.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.
PETROGRAD, March 23.—It is believed that the Russians have taken at Przemysl, nine Austrian generals, 540 officers, 130,000 men, 2400 guns, of which 1000 are heavy cannon, besides a great supply of war material. The number of men exceeds expectations. The fortress, which now remains the old Russian name of Przemysl, was significantly equipped in the way of engineering and artillery, and it was defended with greater skill and determination than the Austrians have shown anywhere else. Day attacks were impossible and night attacks were difficult owing to the use of many searchlights, but the Russians stepped steadily forward, getting their guns gradually into a dominant position, till they could choose their own time for the completion of the victory. With the fall of Przemysl the Russians can now advance westward with the entire railway system in their power.

The statement reads: "All messages from Singapore since the last notification show a restoration of normal conditions. Of those who took part in the riot, all except eleven have now surrendered, have been captured or have lost their lives. Five rioters have been shot after trial by a summary general court-martial. One has been sentenced to 15 years imprisonment and seven to one year's imprisonment each. "During the rioting seventeen German prisoners escaped. Of these six have been recaptured. Direct Cable to The Toronto World, By John A. MacLaren.
LONDON, March 23.—The Princess Patricia Regiment, which for three months has been in heavy fighting in France, including several bayonet charges, again won distinction on the day following the fight and famous British victory at Neuve Chapelle. On that day the regiment was forced to relinquish a trench owing to a fierce German counter-attack, when the enemy tried desperately to recover lost ground in a great general advance. But the Canadian regiment a few hours later recaptured their lost position by plucky fighting, and succeeded in driving the Prussians from two of their own trenches which they had been holding for months.

CAMP WAS SURPRISED

Enemy Marched From Bir El Saba in Twelve Days.

LONDON, March 23.—A statement was given out by the press bureau this evening telling of a defeat inflicted on a Turkish force operating against the Egyptian Town of Suez. The statement says: "On the 22nd inst., at dawn, one of our patrols discovered a party of the enemy near El-Khuri Post, opposite Suez. Shots were exchanged. "Aeroplanes estimated the number at about 1000, composed of infantry, artillery and a few cavalry. "The Turkish force opened fire and inflicted casualties, whereupon the enemy retired and formed a camp eight miles east of the Suez Canal. A force under Gen. Sir G. Youngblood attacked and routed the enemy, who is now in full retreat. "A prisoner says this force came direct from Bir El Saba, having taken 12 days en route, and that Gen. Von Trotter and three other German officers were with it."

Soldiers in Canada Given Alternative—Bill Before House Today.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, March 23.—The special committee appointed to revise and amend the Election Act will probably report to the house tomorrow about enfranchising the soldiers and sailors of Canada. The bill will permit voters in Canada to vote by proxy. The soldiers at the front will mark their ballots for the government candidate, the opposition candidate, or independent, as was done recently in the New Zealand election. This will enable them to cast their ballots and have them mailed to the proper returning officers by the war office. The official nominations they will not vote for a candidate by name, but for the party they desire to support. The ballots may be mailed from the front at any time.

BLAUSTERN WEST

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
ROME, March 23.—Despite all rumors to the contrary, Austria-Hungary and Italy have yet begun. What has really happened is that Von Buelow, after formally discussing Italy's relation to the European conflict at some of the most important meetings with leading Italian politicians, at length arranged the famous interview with Salandra, the premier. At the interview he commended the Italian attitude, of being able to obtain for Italy that not unimportant something from Austria, which he had on an earlier occasion buoyed up Signor Giolitti. In thanking Von Buelow for his desire to conclude the Austro-Italian relations, Italy has merely intimated that she has no objection to the ambassador trying his office, and that she is ready to accept any preliminary understanding has been reached up to the present, even respecting a substantial part of the Austro-Italian agreement, namely an extension of territory with which Austria would be disposed to part.
