"Nothing could be better than such a collection on Agnosticism, Secularism, and Non-Christian philosophies of the day. The treatment of current errors is masterly, considering the brief space allotted to each. Such a book has long been wanted, and we should like its existence to be widely known."

Methodist Recorder.

"The various topics are treated with great acumen and force, by men thoroughly competent to deal with them. The book as a whole forms a valuable arsenal from which Christian preachers and teachers may obtain abundant ammunition for the conflict they may have to wage against the unbelief and scepticism of the times. Any one who should master the contents of this volume would be well furnished for the work both of combating error and of commending the truth to the minds of earnest and honest inquirers."—Congregational Review.

"The style adopted by these controversialists is eminently popular, and their arguments appeal to all minds by their simplicity and lucidity."—The Weekly Times.

"All the tracts are marked by great ability, and are in every respect worthy of the reputation of the authors."—Glasgow Herald.

"The phases of thought represented by Comtism, Materialism, and Agnosticism are criticised, while attention is specially given to Mr. Herbert Spencer's philosophy and to the 'Ethics of Evolution.' Competent writers deal with the various subjects, and a high level of excellence is maintained throughout."
