

C O N T E N T S.

AN Account of the Loss of the St. Lawrence Brigantine, which was wrecked on the Island of Cape Breton, in 1780 9

Mr. Ellis's Voyage to the Northern Frozen Ocean.

Short View of the Navigators who sailed north- ward, previous to Mr. Ellis's Expedition	51
Preparations for Mr. Ellis's Voyage	53
Sails from the Nore under Convoy	54
Signals agreed on between the Dobbs and the California	ibid.
A dreadful Fire breaks out in the Cabin of the Dobbs	55
Fall in with great Quantities of low Ice	ibid.
In great Danger off the Islands of Resolution	56
Touch at some other Islands	ibid.
Bear away for Port Nelson, in Hudson's Bay	57
Inhumanity of the Governor of that Place	ibid.
Make necessary Preparations for their Winter Quarters	ibid.
The Frost sets in with great Severity	58
Description of their Winter Dress	59
Method of catching Rabbits at Hudson's Bay	ibid.
Singular Effects of the Cold there	61
Prepare for pursuing their Discoveries	65
Weigh Anchor and stand to the Northward	ibid.
	Reach