

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xiii

	PAGE
8. Inevitable Accident.
Inevitable accident resulting from lawful act	138
On principle such act excludes liability	139
Apparent conflict of authorities	141
American decisions: The Nitro-Glycerine Case (Sup. Ct. U.S.)	142
Brown v. Kendall (Mass.)	143
English authorities: Cases of trespass and shooting	144
Cases where exception allowed	148
9. Exercise of Common Rights.
Immunity in exercise of common rights	151
Digging wells, &c., in a man's own land	156
Chasemore v. Richards	156
Other applications of same principle	158
Whether malice material in these cases	160
Roman doctrine of "animus vicini nocendi"	161
No exclusive right to names	162
10. Leave and Licence: Volenti non fit iniuria.
Consent or acceptance of risk	162
Express licence	163
Limits of consent	163
Licence obtained by fraud	167
Extended meaning of volenti non fit iniuria to assumption of risk	167
Relation of these cases to inevitable accident	168
Knowledge of risk opposed to duty of warning	169
Cases between employers and workmen: Smith v. Baker	170
Distinction where no negligence at all	172
Distinction from cases where negligence is ground of action	173
11. Works of Necessity
12. Private Defence.
Self-defence	178
Killing of animals in defence of property	177
Assertion of rights distinguished from self-defence	178
Injury to third persons in self-defence	179
13. Plaintiff a Wrong-doer.
Harm suffered by a wrong-doer	180
Sunday trading: former conflict of opinion in U.S.	182
Cause of action connected with unlawful agreement	183