

INDEX.

- try, exports and imports, 90, 92; its trade with the Havannah and Mexico, 92, 93.—Louisiana, general survey of the country, its productions, &c. 96; commercial advantages to be derived from this colony, ib.—Louisiana, considered in a political view, 99; extraordinary conduct of the Spanish government in abandoning this province and other possessions in America.
- Maniac, account of an interesting, 23.—Maple sugar, account of its origin, method of obtaining it, 59.—Methodists, account of them, their ceremonies, &c. 22.—Mississippi, account of the, rapidity of the current, 43.—Missouri, account of the nations inhabiting the banks of the, 56.—Missouri, account of the savages of Upper, 62; their belief, worship, and religious ceremonies, 64; their manners, mode of living, 66.—Missouri, dress of the savages, customs, and manners, 78; summary of their persons, 79.
- Natchez, topography of the town, 83; importance of its commerce with the southern provinces, ib.—Natchitoches, account of the settlement of, 85.—Newark, account of the town, 12.—Newfoundland fishery, description of the; its importance, 4.—New York, arrival at, topographical description, &c. 6.—Effects of the Yellow Fever, 7.—Trade of the city, 9.
- Ohio, course of the river, 37.—Otatooes, bravery of a young chief of the, 72.—Ox-dance, description of this sport, 77.—Orleans, New, destruction of the town twice by fire, 89.—Instance of the absurdity of the gover., ib.
- Panis, the Great, remarks on these Indians, 52.—Peace, proceedings of the savages in concluding treaties, 73; manner of bearing the calumets, 75.—Philadelphia, arrival at, topographical description of the town, 17.—Philadelphia, population of, 18; trade, public buildings, &c. 19.—Pittsburg, short account of the town, 36.—Pointe Coupée, its delightful situation, and culture of cotton, 85.—Plants peculiar to Louisiana, 60.—Plaquemine fort, survey of the country hence to-Balise, 101.—Poncas nation, account of the, 53.—Potowmac, its union with the Bay of Chesapeak, 25.—Privileges, exclusive inconveniences arising from them, 101.
- Quakers, description of their funeral rites, 17; general account of them, 21.
- Revenge, the principal passion of the savages, 81.
- Savages, their amours and marriages; their education, 80.—Scalp-dance, description of the, 71.—Scioux, striking example of justice by the, 67; their preparations previous to going to war, 70.—Slaves, considerations on the, 93.—Skins, their value, 51.—Solitude, singular propensity for, 39.—Spain, proof of her imbecility, 100.—Sun-dance, celebration of this festival, 76.
- Trenton, its trade and commerce, 15.—Virginia, inhabitants of the parts behind, 38.
- Wax-tree, description of the, 87.—Watschita, account of the settlement of, its excellent situation, soil, &c. 84.