

- statement of abandonment of submarine policy, 94; not contingent on other diplomatic negotiations, 95; German promise of May 4, 1916, recalled, 313.
- Switzerland. See Ritter, Paul, Minister of.
- Syria, 296.
- Tacony*, steamer, tender to the Florida, 145.
- Tanning materials, contraband, 10.
- Tar, conditional contraband, 6-7.
- Taylor, Frank, taken prisoner on German prize ship Yarrowdale, 222.
- Telegrams, censorship, 215; Germany protests that telegrams sent over Western Union relative to cotton matters have not been acknowledged, 215; asks that steps be taken to secure uninterrupted messages relative to cotton, 215.
- Telegraphs, material for, conditional contraband, 3; contraband, 9.
- Telephones, materials for, conditional contraband, 3; contraband, 9.
- Telescopes, conditional contraband, 3; contraband, 8.
- Textile industry machines, not contraband, 10.
- Thierichens, Captain, German Ambassador asks that proposed photographs of officers and crews of interned Germans be not made, 164-165; request granted, 165.
- Thierry, Heizer, escaped from internment, 163; to be sent back, 168.
- Thimme, Arthur, taken prisoner on German prize ship Yarrowdale, 222.
- Thrasher, Leon C., death of, 44, 326.
- Tiles, not contraband, 11.
- Times*, London, 135.
- Tinplate, contraband, 9.
- Tires, conditional contraband, 9.
- Tirpitz, Admiral von, 11.
- Tonawanda Boat Company, 208.
- Toulon, France, 88.
- Travarrick*, see Trevarraca.
- Treaties, a bulwark against aggression, 298; if existing treaties are scraps of paper, can fresh treaties help, 298; Prussia and United States. See Prussian-American Treaties.
- Tremcadour*, steamer, tender to British cruisers, 147-148.
- Trevarraca*, steamer, United States inquires as to sinking of, 108; Germany reports ship searched and sunk as an enemy ship, after crew had left in boats, 115-116.
- Trippel*, steamer, United States inquires as to sinking, 107; Germany reports ship carrying contraband for enemy was sunk after crew had left steamer in boats but ten miles from Spanish coast, 114.
- Tsingtau, Battle of, 157.
- Tubantia*, Dutch steamer, sunk, 329.
- Turkey, reply to peace suggestions of President Wilson, 289-290; expulsion from Europe of, 294; of Union and Progress, 296.
- Tuscaloosa*, tender to the Alabama, 145.
- United States, suggested advisability of conforming to Declaration of London, 1; suggestion withdrawn, 2; German reply to British protest against laying of mines, forwarded to British Foreign Office, 20; reports steamer Evelyn sunk, 20; further report as to sinking of the Evelyn, 20; reports steamer Carib sunk, 21; further report as to sinking of the Evelyn, 21; captains of Evelyn and Carib state no sailing directions were given them by boarding officer of British navy, and that vessels ran on mine field, 25; protests against German Admiralty Proclamation of February 4, 1915, 27-29; presents draft of suggested agreement between Germany and Great Britain on subject of maritime warfare, 35-37; first Lusitania note (May 13, 1915), 44-47; asks for information as to attack on Nebraskan, 52; second Lusitania note (June 9, 1915), 52-56; third Lusitania note (July 21, 1915), 61-63; inquires as to sinking of Leelanaw, 64; presents summary of evidence on sinking of Arabic, 68-69; accepts regrets and disavowal of Germany in case of Arabic and is prepared to negotiate indemnity, 70-71; objects to case of Leelanaw going before prize court and suggests settlement by diplomatic negotiations, 74; inquires whether German submarine sunk Sussex, 78; inquires whether German submarine sunk Englishman, 78; inquires whether German submarine sunk Manchester Engineer, 79; inquires whether German submarine sunk Eagle Point, 79; inquires whether German submarine sunk Berrindvale, 79; presents statement of facts in Sussex case, 82-89; accepts German declaration of aban-