CENSURE SUICIDE CAPTAIN Should Have Devoted His Energies to Saving the Passengers.

Hamburg, May 24. - The admiralty court has decided that the wreck of the Hamburg-American line steamer, Prinzesin Victoria Luise, near Kingston, Jamaica, December 18 last, was due to Captain Brunswick's mistaking one light for another, and maintaining full steam at a time when he should not have done so. The decision of the court concludes with saying that Captain Brunswick neglected his duty as commander of the vessel by locking himself in his cabin, and committing suicide, after she ran on the rocks instead of trying to save the ship and passengers, who, however, were all safely landed.
