SINN FEIN SUCCESS PTE. PERCY LEE IN IN EAST CLARE VOTE HELD GRAVE MENACE BY LONDON PAPERS

Consider It Death Knell to the Nationalist Party.

MEANS MORE REBELLION

Healy Declares Sinn Feiners Are Idealists, Not Extremists.

New York, July 12.-An Associated Press cable from London this morning

"The election of Edward De Valera as member of Parliament for East Claire, the third Sinn Feiner to be returned to Parliament of late, is treated as a a event of great political consequence by the morning newspapers, which devote considerable space to the victory. The tendency of the Unionist press, reflecting their advices from Belfast and Dubing their advices from Belfast and Dublin, is to emphasize what it always cor in, is to emphasize what it always contended—the folly of the Government in liberating Sinn Fein prisoners and refraining to deal with revolutionary talk and acts as such would be deal; with in England. These papers regard the situation as gravely threatening, for they see nothing in the Sinn Fein movement but rebellion.

Liberal Party Alarmed.

Liberal press also is alarmed, but rather for the position of the official Nationalist party and for the prospect for the establishment of constitutional home rule. One opinion seems common among all parties, namely, that the prospects of the convention in Ireland to consider home rule is seriously impaired if not entirely doomed. Another view is that the election is an irreparable disaster for the Irish Nationalist party which, many Irish people complain, held the country for years in the dead hand of rigid machine policy. The Sinn Fein movement is regarded in the same quarter as an expression of discontent and vehement resentment of a long course of administrative folly, indicating rather a lack of confidence with present parilamentary methods than a revolutionary tendency, and in this respect, resembling a state of mind which often leads Prussian electors, who themselves are not at all Socialists, to support Socialist candidates at the polls. The Telegraph's parilamentary reporter says all the Irish sections of the House of Commons regard the result as virtually a fatal blow to the Nationalist party—the end of constitutional agitation and the beginning of republicanism. It is declared that no Nationalist seat outside of Dublin is now safe.

Timothy Healy, M. P., frankly gratified, says the English people are mistaken about the Sinn Feiners. They are not rabid extremists, but devoted idealists. Liberal Party Alarmed.

Will Not Take Seat. The local correspondent at Ennis quotes Professor De Valera as saying he does not intend to take his seat in the House of Commons. Commenting on the East Clare election of a Sinn Feiner to Parliament, the Irish independent says, "five out of every six electors, who supported the victor did so out of sheer disgust for the cringing, crawling policy of the Irish party and the blundering tactics of their leaders."

The Irish Times considers that East The Irish Times considers that East The Irish Times considers that East Clare voted for a program of revolution. The Sinn Fein policy so far has developed on destruction and bitterness pregnant with menace to the peace of Ireland, yet this policy triumphed over the memory of a devoted soldier (Major William Redmond) and swept the Nationalists out of a seat held without opposition for twenty years, says the Irish Times.

The Dublin Express says the victory is the most portentious thing in modern he most portentious thing in modern rish political history. "It is clear," the paper says, "that the Nationalists can to little at a convention, but record their views on interest."

Toronto, July 12.—Seventy-two Orange lodges of Toronto and several visiting lodges made the usual 12th of July march from Queen's Park past the city hall to the exhibition grounds this morning. The weather was threatening, but the rain held off, and for part of the day the sun was out. Fears that the lack of transportation facilities due to the street railway strike would thin the parade were not realized. The lodgemen easily found means of getting to the assembling points, and there was not much difference in the size of the crowd of spectators lining the route. On the other hand, the absence of street cars afforded a much better marching route. Banners carried by several lodges, bearing the names of Gen. Brussiloff's offensive in Galacia is developing into a drive with little or no let up, at least so far as the part in it played by Gen. Korniloff's armies is concerned.
