TWO STABBING AFFAIRS ONE MAY PROVE FATAL

Bloodshed Among Foreigners on Saturday Night—The Smallpox Epidemic.

HAMILTON, Sept. 19.—(Special.)—There were two most serious stabbing affrays among the foreigners Saturday night, one of which may turn out to be murder. Of late every Saturday night has been marked by an occurrence of this kind, and there is a general demand for the disarming of the foreign element.

A Second Affray.—The other stabbing affray occurred at an early hour. Poles and a Scotchman got mixed up in a fight with knives in which two men were severely wounded, and about eight others slashed. The trouble occurred at a wedding celebration. A week ago Oshor James was married and the bridegroom was the celebration, and invited some friends last night to continue the merrymaking.

Fatal Accident.

Mrs. Mary Ann Badder, 76 years of age, who fell and dislocated her hip a few days ago, died in the city hospital today.

Scores Race Track Gambling.

Rev. A. E. Mitchell, pastor of Knox Church, preached against race track and other forms of gambling this evening. He said it was humiliating to Canadians to know that the United States had better laws in this respect than Canada had.

National League Saturday.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati and Boston quit even on a double-header. Boston won the first, 5 to 2. Bartley, Promme and Roth. Curtis, Richie and the second game—Fowler, Roney and Paullis; Richie, Matten and Reardon; Umpires—Klem and Brennan.

Wants to Go to Prison.

James Livingston, one of the London regulars who did duty here at the time of the street car strike riots, walked into the police station Saturday, and asked to be sent to Central

At a store on Imperial-street, Joseph Dare, a Polack, was literally carved to pieces. When he was taken to the City Hospital, it was found that he had a big gash in his head caused by the sharp edge of a shovel, a gash across the back from shoulder to armpit, another on the arm and four on the head, the last being made by a razor. His clothes and hat were cut into ribbons. No arteries were made by a razor. His clothes and hat were cut into ribbons. No arteries were made by a razor.
