SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Twenty Volunteered at Big Coolness of Driver McCreary Rally on City Hall Steps Last Night.

Recruiting assumed an unusual degree of activity at the depot yester-day, when 3s recruits were attested out of 65 who made application. This is the best result for a single day in many weeks. Only one day this month showed better results, and that was Tuesday, Aug. 8, the day after civic holiday, when 8s recruits were secured. But in that case the depot had been followed for two days before, wasons passed the house and the boy, who had been records for a single day's recruiting, obtaining 18, or nearly as many as the other units together. The 208th Battalion headed the infantry battalloms with five rosariuts. The remainder were distributed as follows:

166th, 1; 201st, 1; 204th, 2; 213th, 1; 69th Battery, 1; 70th Battery, 2; Twenty Volunteered.

Last night the 220th Battallon, on the stops of the City Hall, conducted probably the most successful and enthusiastic recruiting meeting ever held in Toronto. No fewer than 26 meeting was due to the rollowing meeting ever held in Toronto. No fewer than 26 meeting ever held in the house struck himi To

It has been officially announced that the following units, which recruited in Toronto and are composed of Toronto men, have safely landed in England. 123rd. 124th and the 134th. They were all raised in Toronto last winter and the commanding officer of the 123rd is Lieut.-Col. W. B. Kingsmill, and the 10th Royal Grenadiers was the parent regiment. The 124th was recruited from members of the Mississauga Horse and is commanded by Lieut.-Col. Vaux Chadwick. It is known as the Pals Battalicn.

The 134th was developed from the 48th Highlarders and went overseas under the command of Major A. A. Miller, as Lieut.-Col. Duncan Donald became ill before the battalion left for the command was given three months' seas and was given three months' sick leave. This is the third battalion sent overseas by the 48th Highlanders. The 67th University Battery has now a strength of 90 men and it is desired to raise the strength to 180 he-fore going overseas. A vigorous recruiting campaign will be conducted with this object in view. The battery is made up mostly of university men, with a sprinkling of teachers, bankers and other professional people. The battery is at present in camp at Niasara, but expects to go to Retermine agara, but expects to go to Petawawa

LIEUT. CHARLES NYE

WAS KILLED IN ACTION

Was Well Known in Toronto as Amateur Sportsman.

Word was received yesterday that Lt. Charles Nye, who went overseas as a private with a Q.O.R. unit of the first contingent, has been killed in action. He received his commission on the field as a reward for his gallantry, and also because of his knowledge of military matters. Before coming to Canada he had attended the military school in Dublin. He served for some time with Kitchener's army, and was sent to the Dardanelles, but later returned to England. He went to France two months ago.

Lieut. Nye was well-known as an amateur sportsman. He was an active member of the Argonaut Club here, and while in Ireland he played hockey in the interprovincial series.
