

AMPUTATION MEN ASK EMPLOYMENT

List of Capable Heroes Are Desirous of Finding Steady Work.

At the present time the Amputation Association has about fifty men listed who are out of employment. Many have been engaged in casual work of a temporary nature, and others have recently been discharged from hospital, and have completed courses of vocational training under the D. S. C. R. In the latter case it has been found that the trades or professions for which they trained are now too crowded to admit them. The majority of the men are married, in many cases with children dependent upon them, and the question of permanent employment is a very serious one with them.

A fairly thorough canvass of the city has been made and it has been found that the majority of the employers of labor are very hard to convince that amputations are not a hindrance to the question of how much pension a man is getting is too often taken into consideration when wages are fixed.

The Dominion and provincial governments and the city authorities have been approached regarding employment, and all have promised to give preference to amputations whenever vacancies occur which they can fill. No doubt, in time a good number of the men could be placed in the civil service or in civic positions, and such positions would give the men a sense of security to which they are fully entitled, but in the meantime, some work has to be found for the men, and an appeal to the patriotic employers of labor in the city to make an effort to find positions for them which they could fill efficiently, might clear the situation.

Employers who may be able to use the services of one of these men can communicate with Secretary A. Sutcliffe, of the Amputation Association, 7 College street, Toronto. Particulars of cases available: up of the Exhibition on Saturday night. But in spite of the rain, the grand stand was 80 per cent. full in the afternoon and crowded for the evening performance, which was curtailed a little because of the wet condition of the stage.

RAIN SPOILS CHANCE OF RECORD FIGURES

President Fleming and General Manager Kent both expressed themselves on Saturday night as being entirely satisfied with the success of the 1920 Exhibition, and with the attainment of an attendance total in excess of the million objective. With better weather, they believe the record set last year, when the Prince of Wales proved such a strong drawing card, would have been equaled. If plans already under way work out, it will be a royal hand that will push the opening button again next year. An effort will be made to have Princess Mary come to Toronto next year to start the fair. The new live stock arena, to cost a million and a half, for which Mayor Church announces tenders will be called for within three weeks, the extension of the grand stand, on which engineers are already working, and perhaps a pure food building, and also a music building, all of which are slated for completion within a year, will mark a new period in 1921 in the history of the National Exhibition.

Big City Investment.
Saturday was Citizens' Day, and Mayor Church presided at the Exhibition directors' luncheon. The mayor said the city's investment in the Exhibition amounted to about $6,000,000, and would have to undertake further expansion if the Exhibition was to keep pace with the general development elsewhere. He felt that the government had not given the financial support that might be expected. Many new buildings were needed and additional land was also required to round out the plans of the directors. The harbor improvements would transform the situation south, east and west of the Exhibition grounds, and the federal government had promised to aid in building a bridge across the western gap, and this general forward movement would work in with the plans of the Exhibition.

The Exhibition this year, said the mayor, was most fortunate in its staff. President Fleming's work, he felt, was especially valuable, and thought the citizens owed a debt of gratitude to General Manager Kent, in fact, the whole staff was very efficient. The Exhibition, the speaker pointed out, was carrying itself with a surplus, and therefore was no burden on the taxpayers. The mayor feared that the proposed increase in passenger fares might hurt the fair to a certain extent.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD LAD DROWNED IN POND

Falling from a punt in the pond on the A. E. Ames estate, near Lee avenue, Herbert Bassinathwaite, 12 years, of 10 Juniper avenue, was drowned Saturday noon. Edgar Flower, residing on the estate, swam after the lad, but became exhausted, and was aided from the water by George Mitchellmore, the gardener.

The body was recovered after twenty minutes by J. West, 250 Lee avenue, diving into 12 feet of water. Dr. Clemes worked for an hour with the pulmotor brought by the life saving crew, and then pronounced life extinct. An inquest will be held.

Before closing his workshop complimented Manager R. J. Fleming of the Toronto Street Railway for the efficient manner in which it had handled the crowds during the last two weeks.

Wants an Arena.
Controlled by Ramsden. In a short speech, said he would support an arena plan because the people had asked for it. He was proud to be a Canadian, and a genuine native, because Toronto men had laid the foundation for the Exhibition.

Controlled by Ramsden. In a short speech, said he would support an arena plan because the people had asked for it. He was proud to be a Canadian, and a genuine native, because Toronto men had laid the foundation for the Exhibition.

Still Looking Ahead.
President Fleming responded to the toast to the Exhibition management and directors. He was especially thankful for the support of the city council, and also by members of the city council. He then reviewed the needs for expansion on the grounds. The live stock arena was an absolute necessity for next year, and construction would have to be started almost immediately. More lavatory accommodation was needed also very urgently. He hoped the citizens would cheerfully provide the money when called upon to make these improvements.

Many Lost Children.
Lost children this year at the Exhibition totaled 235. Of this number the largest majority found their way into Miss Bird's tent on Tuesday, August 31. Saturday the total was less than ten, and with the exception of the Tuesday noted no day has seen more than ten lost kiddies. Miss Bird has given them all a welcome-home, ice-cream and chocolate biscuit, and has made many a little one the happier than when he or she came in.

Friendly Criticism.
Ex-Controller Sam McBride offered some friendly criticism of the Exhibition policy. Firstly, he wished to strongly urge the immediate construction of the proposed live stock arena. It had been endorsed by the city council, and it was for the directors and the city council to give effect to the citizens' vote. One feature of the arena, said Mr. McBride, would be a home-like, ice-cream and chocolate biscuit, and has made many a little one the happier than when he or she came in.

Need More Accommodation.
If the support of the public was desired, proper accommodation for them would have to be provided. Also thousands of benches were required. It would only be fair, said Mr. McBride, for the city to permit the Exhibition directors to retain all this year's surplus over $100,000 to be used in providing these needed improvements.

In closing, Mr. McBride paid a warm tribute to the earnest and faithful services of all the members of the staff in making this year's Exhibition the success it had been.

George Irving, vice-president, said that, speaking as a manufacturer, he saw a great need for several new buildings on the grounds, besides the proposed live stock arena. Some of the buildings needed were a new machinery hall, electric building, music building, truck building and pure food building. The city in due time would be asked to provide the capital for the special department of these, but it should be remembered that the exhibitors were providing the interest, sinking fund and maintenance on all the buildings on the grounds.

He would suggest the clearing out of the district north of the grand stand and use it as a site for some of these buildings.

Vice-President Robert Miller, representative of the farmers on the Exhibition board, said he desired to offer his thanks to the great army of men and women from all over the Dominion and beyond the borders, who had gone away from this Exhibition year after year and given the national fair a good name. He also spoke of the splendid feeling existing between the city and the farming community, which he felt was a great asset to the Exhibition.

LOCAL LABOR MAN IS POULTRY SHOW WINNER

Among the many winners in pigeons at the poultry show held this year at the C.N.E. was the well known labor man, John B. Vick, business manager for the International Union of Bricklayers in Toronto. Mr. Vick exhibited 14 birds in all, and gained a second award in yellow tumbler cocks and a third in red hens. He was also a winner with his wire terrier.

NOT THE SAME MAN.
Charles Foye, of 1111 Commercial street, Buffalo, writes to say he was not the Charles Foy fast week reported in third in red hens. He was also a vagrancy case.

SALARY INCREASES FOR CIVIL SERVANTS

Ontario Government Issues List — Retroactive to Nov. 1 Last.

The Ontario cabinet on Saturday announced a large number of salary increases to civil servants who have long been anticipating the list, even despite the fact that only recently Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer, predicted a deficit on the year. The advances are retroactive to Nov. 1 last.

Many of the permanent officials have been generously dealt with. Horace Wallis, the nominal "deputy premier," jumps from $3,500 to $4,400, while G. J. A. Ayeart's "running after rummers" ability has won him a jump from $4,000 to $4,200. Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, a genuinely native-born official, is advanced from $4,700 to $5,100. The increases for the department of the attorney-general were only approved by the lieutenant-governor late on Saturday, and have not been announced. BLIND INSTITUTE PUPILS SHOW TALENT

One of the most interesting sections of the industrial building at the Exhibition was that in which men and women from the Blind Institute were demonstrating the various lines along which they are being trained in order that they may be self-supporting. In the women's department was a display of different articles of clothing which have been made by the blind. Two of the girls were seen working at sewing machines apparently in little or no wise affected by their handicap. A bright and understanding young woman was working at a typewriter. When questioned she explained the mechanism of the dictaphone at which she is often engaged. In the men's department broom-making was in operation; four or five of the blind busy at various phases of the process. At the booth it was learned that there are 3,400 blind registered with the institute, the offices of which are at 36 East King street.

G.A.U.V. CONVENTION

The New Twenty-year Capital Return Policy

(Issued by The Canada Life)

Absolutely guarantees the return at the end of twenty years of all annual deposits, with accumulated profits, after giving you insurance protection for twenty years.

Easily Understood:
1st. Deposits are made yearly. This is what you are saving, and at the end of 20 years the Canada Life guarantees the return of every dollar paid in.

2nd. Your life is insured from the day you make the first deposit,—for $5,000, or whatever amount you decide.

3rd. Dividends are paid at stated intervals in addition to the return of all deposits at the end of 20 years.

4th. These dividends may be used to reduce the amount of your yearly deposits, or be allowed to accumulate at interest for 20 years.

5th. The cash value of Policy and Dividends represents a valuable asset, useful in business, and your "estate" is protected by the insurance.

6th. At the end of Twenty Years you can draw out all you have paid in, along with the accrued dividends—

---or--- you can draw a Special Cash Guarantee, together with the Accumulated Dividends, making a substantial sum, and leave the $5,000 Policy fully paid for and continuing to earn Dividends as long as you live—

---or---
this Special Cash Guarantee may be applied to increase the amount of your policy to more than $7500.

An Immediate Estate
The great advantage over any other form of investment is that a small percentage paid yearly creates immediately an estate of $5,000, or more.

These active, progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be more easily met.

Woman is Given New Lease of Life

"It's a wonderful place. I wouldn't be alive today if it weren't for the Muskoka Sanitarium," and the speaker's hand rested tenderly on a little daughter's curls.

When her husband, having sought medical advice too late, died at the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives, the young widow struggled to support five children. Over-worked, under-nourished, and already infected, the inevitable result was tuberculosis.

What could she do? She appealed to the great heart of the National Sanitarium Association. At once she was sent to the Muskoka Free Hospital, and the little ones were taken to the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptive Children.

Now, a year later, the mother and children are reunited. "I gained forty pounds and feel fine," declared the mother. "Now I could thank everyone who helps that hospital!"
