

and sinners warned to flee from the wrath to come ; while, alas ! there are yet too many who are content to be hearers of the word only. During the last twelve months, the work of the Church has not abated, either in the accustomed duties of the sanctuary, or in going from house to house seeking the spiritual welfare of those committed to his care. The three sabbath services have been as well and regularly attended as circumstances would permit, and the Rector hopes that the four sunday schools have been beneficial to the young persons who have availed themselves of the religious privileges they offer. The number of religious services performed has been 236 ; and 601 pastoral visits have been paid to the whole and the sick.

Death has removed several of the parishioners since the last Report—respecting some of whom, it may be hopefully spoken, and may God grant that the bereaving providences which have been experienced, this year, may produce a salutary effect in the hearts and lives of survivors. The recent census has reported an increase of Church Members in this Parish of 35 per cent in the last five years. The amount subscribed by the Parishoners of St. Eleanor's for Church purposes affords some evidence of their love to the Redeemer. Through the indefatigable exertions of a member of the congregation who takes a warm interest in the prosperity of the Church, twelve pounds have been collected for repairing the organ, and forty pounds have been realised by a tea party got up a few kind and energetic Ladies to aid in completing the new Church at Summerside, which together with other contributions make up the sum of £115 10 11. Subscriptions to D. C. S., £24 10 11.

GEORGETOWN.

The Missionary at Georgetown, Rev. R. T. Roach, reports the steady and consistent attachment of his flock to the worship and sacraments of the Church, and also an increased attendance at the Friday evening lectures. At Harts settlement the little Church remains unfinished, the
