

NOVA SCOTIA (21) ALMANACK.

The high-way plodder now has woful plight,
His road a quag by day, a rock by night ;
Gladly he hails the snug far-gleaming Inn,
Which shields awhile from sleet and whirlwind's din
But the bold Mariner, who, gold-decoy'd,
Too early quit his haven for the void
Of ocean's raging realm,—oh where shall he
At stormy eve procure a sheltering lee ?
