

DOWLING BROS., NEWEST SHADES OF Dress Goods.

Our Dress Goods section is complete with all the newest shades and lat st weaves of French, German and English Dress Goods, and nothing new comes out that is not in our store before most houses have it. We are showing Venetian Cloth in a range of new colors at 60c., 65c., 90c., $1.00, $1.10 and $1.25 a yard. Colors: Wine, Garnet, Cardinal, Medium and Dark Green, Medium and Dark Brown, Medium and Dark Navy, Black, etc.

Fancy Tweed Suitings, that are worth 65c. yard—they are full 42 inches wide and come in an endless selection of new Fall shades—a leader at 49c. Yard.

DOWLING BROTHERS,
95 and 101 King Street.

What about

That pair of Heavy Boots you were going to buy to work in? We have just the thing for heavy work in Split or Grain Leather, from $1.25 up to $2.50.

These goods are reliable and will stand lots of kicks.

Don't forget the place.

CENTRAL SHOE STORE,
122 Mill Street

Boys' Overcoats.

DON'T CLOSE YOUR EYES TO QUALITY WHEN BUYING BOYS' CLOTHING. YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO DO SO EVEN IF THE PRICE IS CHEAPER. WE NEVER SACRIFICE QUALITY FOR THE SAKE OF LOW PRICES, BUT AIM AT ALL TIMES TO GIVE YOU THE BEST FOR THE LEAST MONEY.

OVERCOATS, $3.75, 4.50, 4.75, 4.95, 5.00, 5.25, 5.50, 5.75, 5.95.
REBEPPERS, $2.95, $3.00, $3.35, $3.50, $3.75, $3.85.
SUITS, $2.50 to $5.75.
PANTS, 50c. to 95c.
MEN'S OVERCOATS, heavy and durable, $5.50, $6.25, $6.50, $7.85.
MEN'S PANTS, $1.10 to $3.00 pair.

S. W. McMACKIN,
(Successor to Sharp & McMackin),
335 Main Street, - - - North End.

Beautiful Fur Jackets.

ANDERSON'S Jackets are the best that expert workmen can make up from first class skins—linings—furnishings, etc.

The styles in stock are the houses and plain jacket effects, though any style can be made to order.

PERFECT LAMB $125.00 UP
GREY SQUIRREL 75.00 UP
RUSSIAN LAMB 65.00 UP
ELECTRIC SEAL 30.00 UP
BLACK ASTRACHAN 30.00 UP

These are in stock or can be made to order plain or with collar revers—cuffs of Mink, Squirrel, Sable or other furs.

ANDERSON & CO
17 Charlotte Street.

ARRIVING TODAY
CARLOAD

Ontario Cider,
16, 20 and 30 Gal. Barrels.

Sweet Jamaica Oranges in barrels and boxes. New Dates, New Figs, Fancy Christmas Raisins.

F. E. WILLIAMS CO., Ltd.

$5.00.
BEST VALUE EVER OFFERED
make the $5.00 Gold Crown
each without pain..... $5.00
gold fillings from $1.50
live and other filling from $5.00 each Extracted Without Pain, 15c.
consultation FREE
The Famous Gold Method
Boston Dental Parlor.

THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1900.

THIS EVENING

W. S. Harkins Co. in Through the Breakers, at the Opera House.
Band at Victoria Roller Rink.
St. Peter's High Tea.
Union Lodge No. 2 K. of P., will meet in Castle Hall at 8 o'clock.
E. Tennyson Smith's lecture in York Theatre.

THE WEATHER

Forecast — Northern winds today, a little lower temperature. Thursday, north-east to east winds, increasing to strong breezes or gales by evening, with rain.
Synopsis — An important disturbance, which is developing rapidly in the Mississippi Valley, promises stormy weather in the maritime provinces by Thursday night. To American ports, north to east winds, increasing to gales by Thursday evening. To Banks, fresh to strong northwest to north winds. To St. John, northwest wind, 20 miles, fair. To St. Lawrence, north wind, 20 miles at 21 m.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT AT NOON.
Highest temperature during last 24 hours, 44.
Lowest temperature during last 24 hours, 32.
Temperature at noon, 38.
Humidity at noon, 65.
Barometer reading at noon (sea level), 30.1.
Direction of wind, N. by E.
Force of wind, 10 to 15 miles.
Direction of sea breeze, N. by E.
Force of sea breeze, 10 to 15 miles.
D. L. HUTCHINSON, Director.

WASHINGTON WEATHER REPORT.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Eastern states and northern New York: Rain tonight and tomorrow, clearing to light clouds. A cold wave moving in from the west, bringing a sharp drop in temperature by Thursday.

NOTICE

To Agents and News-dealers.

During the 100th Gold Voting Contest, newsdealers and agents selling The Times will be required to return all coupons from unsold papers to pay for them. This is necessary in order to protect the different organizations entering the contest. EVERY COUPON in this contest will be from a PAID PAPER.

LATE LOCALS

The May Queen is making her final trip on the river for this season today.

Union Lodge, No. 2 K. of P., will meet in Castle Hall at 8 o'clock when the 3rd rank will be exemplified.

A letter from W. Frank Hatheway, in reply to the St. John Railway Company's statement concerning the price of gas will appear in the Times tomorrow.

The Marathons will have their initial dinner at White's this evening. 7 o'clock, and an enjoyable time is anticipated. In addition to the dinner a toast list and a musical programme has been arranged.

There was some little excitement in the station last night, when an amorous Negro attempted to kiss a pretty maid of fourteen. The young girl's father interposed and intimidated that the Negro should be shot.

Three coats and some other articles of clothing stolen on Friday from Winter street school, were recovered by Detective Killen, and Robert Clayton, the thirteen-year-old boy now in jail on remand, is suspected of stealing part of the outfit. Rose Evans and Everett McGarity, of Winter street school, have identified a pair of gloves and one of the coats.

Last evening the members of the Portland Y. M. A. celebrated their fifth anniversary and after the installation of officers and other routine business an adjournment to the reception room was made, and T. A. Armour unveiled a beautiful enlarged photograph of Rev. S. Howard, the founder of the association. R. T. Hayes addressed the gathering, stating that the members sincerely thanked Rev. Mr. Howard for his great interest in the welfare. Mr. Howard replied in a fitting manner. The photo will adorn the walls of the association.

PERSONALS

Frank Baynes, 29 Metcalf street, left last night for Brantford, Mass., to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law.

Dr. Ellis went to Halifax this morning. A. C. Fairweather left on the noon train for Halifax.

Solicitor General Jones arrived in the city this morning. W. B. Howard goes to Halifax this evening.

Charles Owens arrived home today. F. J. G. Knowlton came in on the Boston this morning.

Rev. G. M. Campbell went to Sackville today.

Ignatius Roth, Immigration official with the C. P. R., arrived from Ottawa today. He states that he expects the first train west a week from Friday.

MR. TENNYSON SMITH

The musical programme at the Tennyson Smith Temperance meeting this evening will be as follows:—Musical selection. Selections by Exmouth street Male Quartette; selections by the quartette composed of Miss Seyton, Mrs. Tufts and Messrs. Brantford and Noble.

Tennyson Smith's subject for this meeting is The Searchlight Flashing on the Lemon Traffic and the Trafficants. The York Theatre will, no doubt, be crowded to hear Mr. Smith this evening.

THE BOYS REPORTED

Information has been laid against John and George Drew and Harold Pelt for assaulting Maggie Gullette by taking hold of her and throwing her down, at the corner of Frederick street and Marsh Road on Saturday evening last.

Maggie Gullette, Ellen Caples and Harold Cusack have been notified to appear as witnesses.

POLICE COURT

John Kilgus was the only drunk who occupied the prisoners' bench at this morning's sitting of the police court. When taken into custody, between eleven o'clock and midnight last night he was in the yard in the rear of Harding's saloon on Main street. He was very drunk and his face was badly bruised and out, evidently from having fallen. He was remanded for further hearing.

ABERDEEN SALE CONFIRMED

FREDERICTON, Nov. 21.—The steamer Aberdeen has been sold to Capt. Geo. H. Perry, Manager R. Scott, who had control of the boat for the past four seasons stated that the price paid was $4,000. The Aberdeen has received a subsidy of $600 per annum for running on the Fredericton and Woodstock route.

BOTH DENY THE ASSAULT

Prisoners Heard in the Suspension Bridge Case This Morning

Preliminary hearing in the suspension bridge assault case was resumed in the police court this morning before Judge Ritchie.

The statements of the prisoners, Wm. Sleeth and Thomas Colman, were taken, and both men were allowed out on $10.00 bail, until Friday morning next, when the matter will again be taken up.

Sleeth's defence was that he had with him that day of the arrest. Thomas Colman swore that he resided at Lancaster Heights. He was employed as a teamster on the Street Railway.

About 6.50 on Saturday night he took a car for Douglas Avenue. They went into Parry's store, Main street and later took a car for the evening.

Sleeth was with him. Witnesses started to talk about dogs as they got off the car. Later they noticed the ladies. They passed the ladies, leaving the sidewalk to do so, and Sleeth said "You're a nice lady."

The shorter lady, Mrs. Parker, came up and hit Sleeth on the side of the head with her fist. Sleeth picked up his hat and they started on towards their destination.

Witnesses thought Sleeth made a pass at one of the ladies as he was getting up after recovering his hat. He denied using profane language nor did he see either of the girls struck.

Wm. Sleeth was next called and told his story, which was practically the same as that of Colman. He denied absolutely ever having struck Miss Crawford or chased her on the bridge. Asked regarding his previous statement that he and Colman went over by the ferry, he admitted having made the statement, giving as a reason for it that they didn't want to tell everything.

On application of Mr. Mullin, counsel for the prisoners, the case was set aside till Friday morning at 10 o'clock in order to procure the evidence of Policeman Gossline.

Joseph Sleeth, brother of the prisoner, Sleeth, was also in court and offered $100.00 bail for the reappearance of both prisoners on Friday morning next and they were given their liberty.

THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Chief Clarke Refers to Magistrate Ritchie's Remarks as "School Boy Talk"

Judge Ritchie's rather sensational remarks from the police magistrate's bench in court yesterday, which an evening paper in big headlines interpreted as being directed at the chief of police, caused considerable comment about the city last night.

The prevailing impression was that Chief Clarke designated the department of civio administration.

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

"It is true," said one citizen, "that this bickering between the magistrate and the chief of police should cease. No good can come of it, and it is jeopardizing the efficiency of a most important department of civio administration."

Chief Clarke was seen and asked if he had any reply to make to Judge Ritchie's criticisms. He said, "I am too busy a man to pay any attention to such school boy talk. I can't get down to that level."

Under the title of "the man down stairs" and the trend of the comment was not complimentary to either official.

Macaulay Bros. & Co.

Another of those Great Bargain Sales

DAMAGED TABLE LINENS

Commences Tomorrow,
Thursday Morning, November 22nd.

This will be found the largest stock and best patterns of PURE IRISH LINEN TABLE CLOTHS AND NAPKINS ever put on sale by us. Thousands know well what our slightly damaged in weave sale of Table Cloth and Napkins means. We feel sure this announcement is enough to bring all to our counters who desire bargains. If you wish first-class Table Cloth and Napkins at little cost, come to the sale promptly. It's a great chance to secure Christmas Table Linens. At same time 300 dozens of Pure Irish Linen Hook Towels put up in half dozen lots at $1.00, $1.10, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50 per Half Dozen.

MACAULAY BROS. & CO.

IMPORTED MELTON VELOUR
17c. Yard for 22c. Value.

Suitable for Dressing Jackets and Bath Robes. A number of patterns in Blues, Pinks, Grey, Reds, Greens and Fawn. The late arrival of this lot accounts for the above low price.

I. CHESTER BROWN, 32 and 36 KING SQUARE.

In Our Black Dress Goods Department

You will find our Stock very complete in BLACK VENETIAN CLOTHS AT 60c., 80c., 95c., $1.10 and $1.25.
BLACK BROAD CLOTHS AT $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 yard.
BLACK CHEVIOTS AT 80c., $1.10 and $1.50.
BLACK UNION VICUNA AT 28c. and 55c.
BLACK WOOL POPLINS AT 55c. and 75c.
BLACK SATIN CLOTHS AT 85c., 90c. and $1.00.
CASHMERE, HERRING, LUSTRE, SERGE, GLORIA CANTAS CLOTHS, CAMELS HAIR, NUNS VEILING, CHALLI, ETC.

Our Prices Will Interest You.

ROBERT STRAIN & CO., 27 and 29 Charlotte St.

A TIMELY BARGAIN IS BY LONG
ODDS THE VERY BEST BARGAIN.

SALE OF WINTER WAISTS, 35c. to $3.25

Flannelette, Lustre, Sateen, Cashmere, Silk. Made in the Most Approved Modes, Trimmed Very Prettily. Altogether a First-Class Line of Samples.

TOMORROW, Thursday Morning, in the Rear of the Main Store we will commence to clear out this assortment of well-made, brand new, serviceable Winter Waists. Some are for home wear, others are suited to ladies who desire an evening waist, and still others will make attractive, neat and durable workday waists, for those engaged in mercantile, manufacturing or clerical pursuits. The lot consists of 275 only.

Flannelette Waists
Made good and full, with long tucked cuffs self-trimmings, etc. In blues, greens, reds, black, etc. Fancy coloring effects in most of them, such as spots, figures and novelty stripings. The workmanship is of the very best, and every waist will wear with entire satisfaction.

Black Sateen Waists
A popular quality and style of waist with women who work in offices, warehouses, factories, etc. Always tidy and clean. These bargain goods are bright and fresh looking.

The Cashmere Waists
Chiefly in cardinal, plain. Warm and superior in appearance. A small line of sample-snaps for somebody.

The White Silk Waists
Popular Japanese quality, trimmed very tastefully in keeping with the dainty quality of the goods. Silk embroideries, tuckings, shirrings, etc. These, too, marked at a minimum price.

FLANNELETTE, BLACK SATEN, THE CASHMERE AND LUSTRES, 35c. to $1.50

THE JAPANESE SILK WAISTS—EXCELLENT VALUE, $1.25 to $3.25

Sale on Thursday; Starts 8.30

REAR OF MAIN STORE.

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON, Limited.